

PEACE PLAN IS BEFORE WILSON

David Starr Jordan, as a Delegate, Bears Message

Neutral Nations Will Meet at Swiss City

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—David Starr Jordan, chancellor of Leland Stanford University and head of the International Peace Congress recently held in San Francisco, told President Wilson today that a quasi-official meeting of neutral nations probably will be held some time before Christmas, either at The Hague, Bern or Copenhagen, to attempt to bring about peace in Europe.

Dr. Jordan conveyed to the President a resolution from the Peace Congress asking him to cooperate with other neutrals in calling such a conference.

In a statement laid before the President by Dr. Jordan, it was declared that as a result of recent missions to the governments of the warring nations, it could be stated that while the nations at war were not willing themselves to begin negotiations for peace, "there is nevertheless abundant evidence that these charged with the administration of the foreign policies of these nations would welcome or at least not oppose affirmative action by a neutral agency to bring about a peace based on international justice."

OTHER COUNTRIES WILLING.

Dr. Jordan said that while no official information was available, peace advocates had learned from unofficial sources in Holland, Sweden, Switzerland, Denmark and Spain that those countries would be glad to take part in any movement to further the cause of peace. Dr. Jordan was accompanied by Louis P. Lochner, secretary of the Chicago Peace Society, who acted as secretary to Miss Jane Addams of Hull House, Chicago, when she visited Europe as a representative of the Women's Peace Congress, and much of the information conveyed to the President was gathered by Miss Addams and her companions.

Dr. Jordan took the position that it would be more natural for the European neutrals to invite the United States to participate in the peace conference than for the United States to issue the invitation. He said that an unofficial meeting of peace advocates at Bern December 14, at which plans for bringing about peace will be discussed, would be attended by people from the United States.

The idea of quasi peace conference suggested to President Wilson on behalf of the International Peace Congress by Dr. Jordan was that it would constitute a voluntary continuous mediation, would invite suggestions for settlement from each of the warring nations, and in any case would submit simultaneously to all of them reasonable proposals as basis for peace. Dr. Jordan did not reveal what President Wilson said to him, but the President several times has taken the position that he will be glad to do anything of a practical nature to end the war.

McCall Will Be Dismissed in N. Y.

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—State Senator Thompson of a legislative committee engaged in investigating the State Public Service Commission announced today that the committee would recommend the removal of Edward E. McCall, chairman of the commission of this district, and had notified Mr. McCall of its decision.

Chief of the reasons for recommendation of Mr. McCall's dismissal, Senator Thompson said, were the revelations recently made by him on the witness stand concerning the alleged bribery in the King's County Light and Power Company, a corporation whose activities are under the supervision of the commission.

Woman Critic of Roosevelt Is Dead

BAKERSFIELD, Nov. 12.—Sarina de Storey, a "vaudeville" actress, whose criticism of Colonel Roosevelt's speech on Egypt some time ago and whose recent matrimonial troubles brought her considerable notoriety, died at Taft, in the West Side of fields, yesterday, of meningitis. She went to Taft Sunday to present her play, but became ill and was forced to cancel her engagement.

Her husband, Dr. Storey, a Harvard graduate, married her in the East, but she was shortly afterward, according to her press notices, divorced from him in San Francisco recently while doing a tour of the town and brought suit against him in the San Francisco courts. She was born in Jerusalem.

Early Alameda County Settler Passes Beyond

SAN LEANDRO, Nov. 12.—Mrs. Lucia Garcia, who lived on the Garcia homestead here for 55 years, died this morning. She was 82 years of age and one of the earliest settlers in the bay region. With her husband, Joseph Garcia, she came to California from the country of Portugal, by way of the isthmus of Panama in 1856.

Funeral services will be held Monday at the family home on East Fourteenth street and in St. Leander's church. Interment will be in St. Mary's cemetery, Oakland.

Search for Thief; Gems in Bouquet

Assistant Manager of Hotel Oakland Rivals Dupin

While detectives searched the hotel from top to bottom a distracted woman was bewailing the loss of a fortune in jewels. Walter Baker, assistant manager of the Hotel Oakland, yesterday rivalled Poe's Dupin, hero of "The Murders in the Rue Morgue," and recovered $4000 worth of jewels from a discarded bouquet.

The jewels were the property of Mrs. W. S. Phelan, visiting at the hotel as a guest of the daughters of the American Revolution convention. She had worn the jewels, consisting of a diamond necklace and a brooch, the night before, and, on awakening, went downstairs. Upon her return she discovered that the treasures were missing. She at once called for the house detective and spread the alarm.

After searching the hotel Baker conceived the idea of examining the refuse taken from the guest's room. The bouquet caught his eye. The diamond glinted from its center. He hid them there for the night, not desiring to go downstairs to have them placed in the office safe. She then forgot the incident, she says, and in her absent-mindedness, thought them stolen.

TRIAL HALTS CUPID'S PLANS

Not only has the trial of Frank Terramorse, Jr., on a charge of appropriating the wardrobe of J. R. Molera, of Alameda, caused many complications in the superior court, but it came to light today that one of the principal woman witnesses has been delayed in her marriage preparations through being served with a subpoena.

Anna Pufahl, formerly employed by Terramorse, Sr., in his San Francisco business house, exclaimed her impatience while in the district attorney's office today by declaring that her "sweetheart" was waiting to get married and that the legal complications of the Terramorse-Molera troubles interfered.

That Terramorse Sr. and Terramorse Jr. were both infatuated with Mrs. Molera, the "Spanish Nightingale," and were jealous of each other's alleged attentions to her, was related by Miss Anna Pufahl from the witness stand today. She said that the father had owed her money, and that she had volunteered to "disappear" instead of testifying if the accounts were settled.

WATCHED COUPLE

"I didn't want to go into court and tell all I knew about the case," she said.

On one occasion the witness said that Terramorse Jr. had confided to her in San Francisco that Mrs. Molera was going to visit him.

"He asked me where was a good place to go and I told him to take her to the Poodle Dog. He asked me how much it would cost and I told him the price and the way to get in and the way to get out of the place. Then that night I watched from across the street and saw them coming back."

"How did you know that they would want to go to the Poodle Dog?" asked Attorney McDonough.

"Well, when he told me that she was coming over I knew where they would want to go."

The witness further related incidents wherein she saw manifestations of love between the couple.

SAV LOVE LOOK IN EYES

"On the street car I could tell by the way they looked into each other's eyes. In the house he would put his arms around her and call her 'Fay-Fay, Fay.'"

I knew all about these things and when I told his father he was surprised. The father told lies to the son and the son told lies to the father."

"What did you think about all that?" she was asked.

"I thought they both lied," Miss Pufahl replied.

"Was the father married?" asked Attorney McDonough.

"Well, he was once, but he got a divorce. I don't know if it was final. I think that he didn't care for his wife anyway because he showed me a divorce receipt, and when a man pays alimony it is a good sign that he is not on very intimate terms with his wife."

Throughout the testimony of Miss Pufahl there was intermittent laughter in the courtroom with Judge, jury and spectators doing their best to restrain their merriment.

Republicans to Be Consulted on Defense

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—Republicans in Congress will be consulted by President Wilson on the administration plans for national defense before the opening of the coming session. In line with his announcement in his Manhattan Club speech in New York last week the President will appeal to men of all parties for legislation to strengthen the army and navy.

Officials took the view that the President is hopeful that his plans will receive the support of Republicans, and thus overcome the opposition of some Democrats led by former Secretary Bryan.

'RUT' MADE LEVEL BY BISHOPS

Conference Alters Plans to Finance Outside Churches

Criticism of Yesterday Is Answered With Action

Methodist-Episcopalism was lifted out of the rut attributed to it by former Lieutenant-Governor A. Wallace yesterday when the general committee of the board of home missions and church extension, meeting in the First church, today adopted two resolutions, the first creating a special fund to be used at the discretion of the organization and the second placing a ten-year appropriation limit on churches and charges now receiving missionary aid and which are deemed to be capable of self-support.

The first resolution, radical in their nature when considered in relation to the past procedure of this board, were drawn up and submitted by the special committee which was appointed on Wallace's motion of yesterday. Their adoption means a complete revolution of the system whereby the home missions and church extension board has assisted in the support of thousands of churches and missions in this and other countries for the past forty-five years.

The second resolution, radical in their nature when considered in relation to the past procedure of this board, were drawn up and submitted by the special committee which was appointed on Wallace's motion of yesterday. Their adoption means a complete revolution of the system whereby the home missions and church extension board has assisted in the support of thousands of churches and missions in this and other countries for the past forty-five years.

The first-named resolution provides for a fund to be known as the "special fund," and from which the general committee of the board may annually increase appropriations when it is considered necessary. This, in the past, has been impossible in view of the fact that the officers of the board, in Philadelphia, annually made recommendations for appropriations which left no money with which to increase sums to certain deserving churches.

VICTORY FOR WALLACE.

This is the system that Wallace talked against, charging that the church was in a "rut of centuries," that it was obsolescent and making no progress, paying certain appropriations year after year without making adequate investigation of whether the recipients were deserving of continued gifts. This system, he said, tended to make the favored churches non-self-supporting and non-independent. This fund is to be made up of the undesignated bequests left the church.

The second resolution adopted carried out the other half of Wallace's idea of revolutionizing the church's system of carrying on its work of extension. Under its provisions the board will begin to gradually decrease appropriations to churches which have been receiving them for a period of ten years, until, in time, that charge shall become self-supporting. This will affect thousands of churches and other branches of the church in this country alone.

Bishop J. W. Hamilton of Boston headed this special committee. The resolutions were not adopted until much discussion and debate, and among the delegates, but there was little opposition when the vote was taken. A third resolution framed by this committee, providing that appropriation should be made only to churches which have adopted the new financial plan was referred to the committee for amendment.

The general committee authorized the granting of appropriations approximating $802,765 during the coming year. Of this amount, $388,426 is to be expended in church extension work and $165,339 in home missions. Several requests for appropriations aggregating more than $104,000 are still being considered in committee.

SPEAKS ON MISSIONS.

The Board of Home Missions and Church Extension, as Related to the Church, was the subject of an address by Rev. Ward Platt of Philadelphia at this morning's session. Rev. Charles M. Bowtell and Rev. Allan MacRae of New York City spoke after the address. The former on "Constructive Program for American Cities," and the latter on "The City as Illustrated by Greater New York." Bishop Hamilton will preside at this evening's session, at which Bishop Francis J. McConnell of Denver will speak on "Our Work Among Spanish-Americans," and Bishop William A. Quayle of St. Paul will talk on "American as a Christian Nation." Bishop Quayle will give his famous lecture on "Exile" at 8 o'clock tomorrow evening. This is to be one of the "treats" of the meeting. The lecture has brought considerable fame to Bishop Quayle, who has given it in a score of cities in this country. It will be open to the public.

Rev. William L. Schlegel will lecture at the church at 7 o'clock this evening.

The delegates have accepted the invitation of the Methodist Episcopal churches of this side of the bay to be guests on an automobile ride about the county tomorrow afternoon.

Haitians Approve of Treaty With America

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—The State Department received official word today that the Senate of Haiti had approved the treaty with the United States providing for a Haitian American protectorate over the country. The vote on the treaty was 55 to 10. Secretary Lansing immediately advised President Wilson of the vote. The treaty will be before the United States Senate at the coming session of Congress.

GARDNER NOT TO ACCEPT TRANSFER

"Was in Somebody's Way," Says Demoted Inspector

Puts Pertinent Questions to Department in Washington

Rather than accept transfer to an obscure post in New Jersey, Dr. John E. Gardner, of 1130 Shattuck avenue, Berkeley, has resigned his post as Chinese inspector and interpreter at the port of San Francisco, and his resignation has been accepted. To the machinations and secret influence of Wong Doo King, leading high-binder, whose deportation Dr. Gardner caused, the latter largely charges his attempted debasement by the immigration authorities.

"I was in somebody's way, and so it was proposed to remove me," declared Dr. Gardner this morning. "I have no hesitation in saying so. No criticism has ever been made of my work except by those upon whom, through my efforts, the heavy burden of the law descended. No one has given the study to my duties, to the Chinese language, and to the ways of criminal Orientals than I have given in my thirty-two years in this work and before."

Dr. Gardner's transfer to Gloucester, New Jersey, an unimportant post for a man in his work, was ordered October 21st by Commissioner General of Immigration Canning. Dr. Gardner, though having been threatened of Chinese of this port more than once with denunciation did not mitigate his severity against smugglers and others, was surprised at the sudden order. After due consideration he sent his resignation to Washington, whence a dispatch today tells of its acceptance.

Now Dr. Gardner puts these pertinent questions:

"Why is San Francisco's Chinatown so near to Washington?"

"Who profits by this transfer but my enemies?"

"How did the local Chinese know of the purpose of the commissioner general of immigration before his order was issued?"

"What use can I, an expert in the Chinese language, be at a port in New Jersey?"

NONE UNDERSTAND.

"Most inexplicable" is the characterization placed upon the proposed removal of Dr. Gardner by those acquainted with his work at this port. Various federal judges and department heads at San Francisco recently sent an urgent appeal in his behalf to Washington, as from men best acquainted with his service to the local federal officers. It was ignored. A telegram was rushed to the capital when the order of transfer or at least a stay of sixty days. It was without effect.

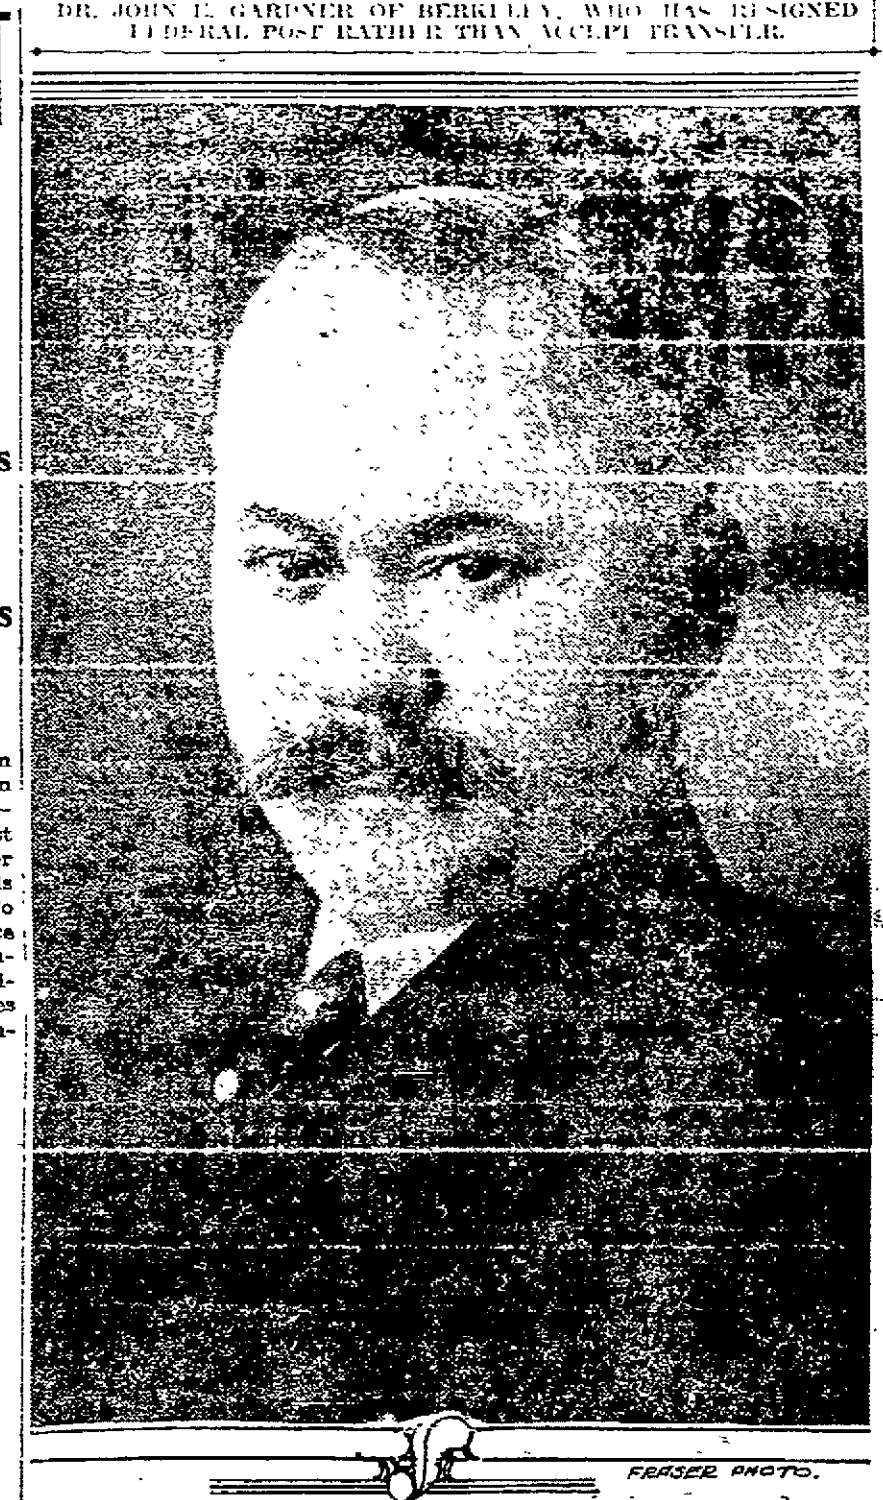

"Efficiency of the government in handling the Chinese criminal cases will be impaired from 50 to 75 per cent," the immigration heads were informed. They paid no attention to the warning.

It is Wong Doo King that Dr. Gardner primarily blames for the attempted dishonor thrust upon him. Through his work largely, Wong was recently deported. How Wong threatened to retaliate and other sensational details of the move to vacate the interpretership Dr. Gardner says.

CHINESE INFORMED.

"Months ago—as far back as June—Chinese came to me and asked me when I was going East. They knew about my transfer long before I dreamed of its possibility."

"About six weeks ago a Chinaman came to me and told me that he knew a way in which I could save my position. I expressed surprise that there was any intention of depriving me of my position. The Chinaman insisted that I would be transferred and stated that I could save myself if I would lend some official of the immigration service for a secret conference about San Diego and a visit to the Panama-California Exposition tonight."

WILSON AND CABINET CONSIDER ANCONA

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—President Wilson and the cabinet met today for the first time since last July, when the German submarine question was at one of its most serious stages. The sinking of the Italian liner Ancona is the most important foreign question before the cabinet today, but no definite action is expected until full official details are at hand.

It was stated at the White House, however, that the cabinet meeting today was called only because the President wants to get in touch with his official advisers before the opening of Congress to discuss his annual message and legislation affecting their departments. From now on cabinet meetings will be held regularly twice a week.

State department officials are perplexed today over the unexpected delays in setting definite official information on the sinking of the Italian liner Ancona, with probable loss of American passengers. No dispatches have reached the state department early today. A consular official has been ordered to Tunis from information on the sinking of the Italian liner Ancona, with probable loss of American passengers. ## Ashes Review In Kelley Recall Case

J. H. Helmslein of Alameda, a defeated candidate for the office of supervisor at last year's election, has filed in the Superior Court a petition for a writ of review of County Clerk Gross' action in certifying as insufficient the recall petition directed against Supervisor Joseph M. Kelley.

The matter has been assigned to Judge T. H. Torrance for a hearing next Tuesday. The court clerk was given five days in which to set up his side of the case.

It has been decided to set aside the matter that the findings of the county clerk are final. The Superior Court in San Francisco recently upheld the registrar in the attempted recall of Sheriff Eggers. There has also been some discussion as to whether certiorari or mandamus will be proper remedies for the Helmslein case to pursue.

Better Markets for State Products, Motto

SAN DIEGO, Nov. 12.—"Better markets for California products" is the subject of a joint conference being held this morning between the California Development Board and the State Board of Agriculture with Harry Weinstock of Sacramento presiding. Little was accomplished at the session in a morning, most of the discussion being preliminary to the main subject of the conference, which will be taken up at the session tomorrow morning. No sessions are scheduled for this afternoon or tonight, the delegates having planned for a night conference about San Diego and a visit to the Panama-California Exposition tonight.

CONSULS OF AUSTRIA ACCUSED

Exile Alleges Vienna Demanded U. S. Secrets

Embassy Brands Him as Traitor to His Country

BULLETIN.

CHICAGO, Nov. 12.—Hugo Silvestri, Austro-Hungarian consul-general at Chicago, issued a signed statement today denying the published allegations made by Dr. Joseph Gorlick.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—Published charges, attributed to Dr. Joseph Gorlick, former Austro-Hungarian consul at San Francisco, that Austrian consuls in the United States, working under the direction of Consul-General Nuber and Count von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, are active in propaganda for destruction of munition factories and fomenting strikes among the workers, will be referred by the state department to the department of justice for investigation.

The Austrian embassy denounced Gorlick's published statement as untrue in every particular and announced it would try to find some way to prosecute him for it. Gorlick, the embassy said, left his post at San Francisco on leave and failed to return.

LANSING SILENT.

Secretary Lansing today declined to comment on the charges. The department of justice has a good deal of information on hand regarding the activities of Consul-General Nuber, which it gathered while investigating his connection with the case of Dr. Dumba, the recalled Austrian ambassador, but so far has nothing definite on the charges attributed to Dr. Gorlick.

In substance, Gorlick is accredited with making the statement that he resigned his post after fifteen years in the Austrian consular service because he declined to perform the work of a spy. He charges that while he was consul, Commander Maximilian Burstin, the Austrian naval attaché at Washington, ordered him to gather plans of the fortifications of San Francisco harbor and along the Pacific coast, and to get especially details of the works at Bremerton navy yard. When he refused, Gorlick is accredited with saying, he was transferred to Berlin, where, after the outbreak of the war, he proceeded to Vienna, which he had gone to because of his pro-Slavic affiliations, so he fled to Rome, where he resigned last December.

SECRET PROPAGANDA ALLEGED.

Gorlick's story contends that the German ambassador, working with von Nuber, had been ordered to get Austrian consuls at Cleveland, St. Louis, Pittsburgh, St. Paul, Chicago and Philadelphia, who spread propaganda among the foreign workers in the munition factories, and such activity, Gorlick alleges, extends even to converting the foreigners through internal and secret organizations. The alleged extent of the activities of the Austrian consuls and the so-called spy system are described at length in Gorlick's published statement. Gorlick's record shows he first came to this country in 1905 and was consul at Pittsburgh, Denver, and finally San Francisco, where he served three years.

THE AUSTRO-HUNGARIAN EMBASSY ISSUED THE FOLLOWING STATEMENT:

"Ex-Consul Dr. Gorlick, formerly at San Francisco, has been on leave of absence since the outbreak of the war and has been temporarily recalled to Vienna to the Austro-Hungarian embassy general in Berlin, Germany. There, very soon afterward, he obtained knowledge that the Austro-Hungarian authorities had received information about his secret connections with the enemy of Austro-Hungary, and, evidently fearing detection, he suddenly left his post without permission and disappeared. Later on it was learned that he had gone to Italy and was staying in Rome, from where he tendered his resignation, thereby preventing his dismissal."

HAS RUSSIAN AID?

"While he was in Rome it was ascertained that he was in close relation with Russian and Serbian agents, obviously with the purpose of going to the United States to use his knowledge of the centers of Slavic immigration coming from the monarchy in the service of the Pan-Slavic propaganda, and with the intention of using native Slavs among our immigrants against the country of their birth."

"The Austro-Hungarian embassy has been informed that quite a number of southern Slavs from the monarchy have been enlisted by the agents of the allies and have left this country to fight against the Austro-Hungarian army. It is very probable that Dr. Gorlick's subversive activity contributed to the very regrettable loss of Russian, which, certainly without changing the outcome of the war, will be of the greatest consequences for those who have made prisoners of war."

The Austro-Hungarian embassy was informed several times that the report.

'FRAME UP,' SAYS ATTACKED LAWYER

Disbarment Proceedings Are
"Mass of Perjury," Replies
McCowan.

BAKERSFIELD, Cal., Nov. 12.—Following the disbarment charges preferred today in the supreme court of California by San Francisco District Attorney Barclay McCowan, the Kern County Bar Association has issued a statement.

"These disbarment proceedings are a deliberate attack on the part of the state bar to have the Kern County Bar Association removed from the state bar and to have the Kern County Bar Association removed from the state bar and to have the Kern County Bar Association removed from the state bar."

"This latest step of political thuggery will meet the same fate as all others have met during the past three years in which the people of Kern county have been fighting for political freedom."

"The charges filed today are a mass of perjury."

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 12.—No charge of the acceptance of money is made against Barclay McCowan, district attorney of Kern county in the petition for disbarment filed against him yesterday in the supreme court by the Kern County Bar Association. An examination of the petition and the accompanying affidavit made today revealed that although McCowan is accused of demanding money to the extent of $2000 in the case of E. W. McCutchen, who was charged with a slandering offense, there is absolutely no record in these proceedings of any accusation that any money changed hands.

Falls on Bottle; Reports Stabbing

Harry L. Kavar came home in an automobile last night suffering from a wound in his side. A doctor has assured that the hurt would not be fatal. Mrs. Kavar listened for an explanation.

"I was stabbed by two men at the High street cafe," said Kavar.

"Telephone to the police," suggested Mrs. Kavar, and Kavar could not invent any reason for not doing so.

The police investigated. Kavar had left the cafe at 2 o'clock in the morning in good company with "Tommy Atkins," an enterprising and another man. Later he had trouble in navigating and fell down, cutting himself with a milk bottle.

POLICE RECOVER SUITS TAKEN FROM HOTELS

Suits of clothes and overcoats stolen from a dozen lodgers in Oakland hotels and rooming houses were recovered by the police today following the capture of Narciso Ramirez, said to be one of the cleverest room thieves who has ever worked in Oakland. Ramirez will be charged with burglary. He was arrested by inspectors McCarthy, Drew and Quigley.

The police have four suits of clothes, a clock, a suitcase, an amethyst scarf pin and a gold tie clasp which have not been identified by their owners. The articles were among the loot stolen by Ramirez, and recovered by the police.

Ramirez operated by taking a room in a hotel, and then looting the adjoining bedrooms. Among the men whose clothes were taken by Ramirez were Edgar Johnson, Gibson Hotel, 1025 Clay street; L. Moore and L. E. Moore, Victoria Hotel, 721 Clay street; Antonio Caldero, 723 Washington street; Jules Gurl and William Shaw, 709 Franklin, and William Spear, 605 Franklin street.

WOMAN SUES TO REMAIN CITIZEN

Singer's Wife's Appeal Now
Before Supreme Court for Decision.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—Citizenship rights of American women who marry foreigners, but who continue to live in the United States, was placed yesterday before the Supreme Court for decision. The case was that of the wife of a German-born man, who had been a citizen of the United States.

Mrs. Ethel C. MacKenzie, of California, wife of Gordon MacKenzie, a British subject, who was a citizen of the United States, has been attacking the act of Congress in 1906 which gave the state courts the right to decide the citizenship of women who marry foreigners. She claims that the act of Congress did not apply to women remaining in this country and that it did not apply to her.

She was admitted to the court in the belief that the act of Congress was of vast importance to American women because of the European war, particularly in the case of the German-born women who were in the country.

Liberal Party Returns to Power in Norway

CHRISTIANIA, Oct. 12.—The return to the leadership of a majority of the supporters of Premier Gunnar Knudsen and the popular support of the Liberal party, points to a probable fulfillment of one of the cardinal proposals of the Liberal program—a government monopoly of the grain industry.

To handle the proposed grain monopoly, the appointment of 1200 special officials contemplated at an expense of about $1,000,000 a year. It is estimated that the capital of at least $20,000,000 will be needed.

The conservative plan to strengthen the national defense also was lost with the defeat of the party.

OAKLAND PHOTO THEATER SHOWS CLEVER ACTRESS

The picture is a photo-adaptation of Henry Arthur Jones' international dramatic success, "The Masqueraders," in which she appears as the delightful, clever actress, the girl who becomes a tumbler to keep the family out of the poorhouse.

The greatest test of an actress's ability must inevitably come when she is called upon to portray a character that develops tremendously under the influence of the story. In this play, as an actress, she is at her best. In this play, as an actress, she is at her best.

On the same program which will continue at the Oakland Photo Theater on Saturday evening, Hazel Dawn is presented in a Vitaphone Blue Ribbon feature, "The Man Who Couldn't Beat," a powerful story of the accusing power of conscience.

Cupid's Net Falls Over Gale Perkins

Real Romance Comes to Hero of New York
Spending Romance

Gale Perkins, son of Mrs. Maudie Perkins, has embarked upon the prim ship matrimony for a journey over quiet waters.

His real romance has come to him in the form of Miss Grace Barbara Moran, daughter of Professor John J. Moran, who lives at 1245 Pine street, San Francisco. They are at the Hotel Newman preparing for their honeymoon journey. Their marriage took place Wednesday in the rectory of St. Mary's. The bride was Miss Dorothy Healy and the best man was L. J. Sparks.

Perkins signed himself as Thomas G. Perkins, Healthsburg mining man. Between that and ranching he has chosen a life far removed from that glitter that blinded him in 1908 in New York, where he ran up hotel bills as fast as his relatives could pay them.

He is now a solid citizen, who objects to this incident of his youth rising up and hitting him in the nose now and then. But he finally admitted his identity.

He and his bride will go back to the ranch to live. She is a graduate of Notre Dame and a social favorite. Perkins was graduated from Stanford in 1905.

Norwegian Lured to Lonely Spot; Robbed

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 12.—Lured by three men to a lonely spot in Golden Gate Park at 3 o'clock this morning, Ole Hagan, who says he was formerly a detective in Norway, was robbed of his watch and $17 in coin and for a while was lost in the maze of trees and shrubbery, in which he found himself. Hagan, one of three men in a downtown saloon, suggested a ride to the Cliff House. They started at 2 o'clock, rode around the boulevard and were proceeding through the park when Hagan was lured down a secluded path. Hagan says they set upon him there, knocked him down and after robbing him jumped in the auto and left him.

WOMAN AUTO VICTIM

WOODBRIDGE, Nov. 12.—Mrs. Jacob Wagenmann is still unconscious from injuries sustained on Sunday when she was run down by an automobile driver. The woman is almost 50 years of age, and her recovery is being made to ascertain the identity of the autoist.

FURUSETH DEFENDS BILL AT QUAY WALL LUNCH SAYS LAW WILL RESTORE MERCHANT MARINE

SCENE AT FORMAL DEDICATION OF OAKLAND'S FIRST MUNICIPAL WAREHOUSE YESTERDAY. WHEN ROTARIANS ENJOYED A UNIQUE LUNCHEON. ANDREW FURUSETH (BELOW) WAS THE SPEAKER OF THE DAY, EXPLAINING TO THE BUSINESS MEN THE DETAILS OF THE LA FOLLETTE SEAMAN'S BILL, FOR WHICH HE IS MAINLY RESPONSIBLE.

SPONSOR OF LA FOLLETTE LAW TALKS OPTIMISTICALLY

Andrew Furuseth, who fought for an ideal for twenty years, winning his fight with the passage of the La Follette Seaman's bill, yesterday afternoon at this place of legislation, will be the instrument through which the American Merchant Marine will be brought back to the seven seas of the world.

He explained how, in his opinion, this bill, so much condemned in all parts of the country, will place ships on the high seas beneath the protection of the American flag and under American registry. He explained his views in a talk to members of the Oakland Rotary Club and others of the city's business men who formally dedicated the first unit of the city's inner harbor development by holding their weekly luncheon in the just-completed municipal warehouse at the foot of Clay street.

"BOOST" is watchword. The watchwords of the luncheon, which opened at 12:30 o'clock with V. O. Lawrence, president of the local Rotary Club, presiding as toastmaster. He used a hatchet as a badge of office. He sat on a packing case, containing two score tins of pine-apples. At his back a huge pile of boxed tinned goods rose almost to the left roof of the big warehouse. Stretching away on either side of him and before him, with many of them standing up and unable to secure seats at the "first table," were the boosting diners. Lawrence, with enthusiastic vigor, kept the fun at its height until the time arrived to call upon Furuseth as the day's speaker.

Lank and grotesquely bent forward, his eyes filled with the fanatic's love of his subject, Furuseth began his address with characteristic vigor.

"I'll tell you about this La Follette Seaman's bill that you've heard and read so much about but as yet know practically nothing about," he began. "There has been much misrepresentation with regard to this bill. On every side we have heard cries that it would kill the American merchant marine, that it would be the undoing of American shipping. That is all poppycock. I will tell you why."

Furuseth then explained the bill in detail. He told of the maritime history which led up to his determination to fight for the passage of such a bill. He told of the death of the American merchant marine more than sixty years ago.

MERCHANT MARINE DIES.

"Congress, you see, had followed one advice for more than one hundred and twenty years, and found the merchant marine dying on its hands," the speaker said. "Then it decided to try a remedy. It passed the Seaman's bill, as it is called. Now don't you believe it. The Seaman's bill wasn't passed by Congress because of any humanitarian desire to make the lot of the sailor easier. Not a bit of it. The men in Congress are not sentimental mushheads. The bill was passed that the lives of men, women and children traveling at sea might be made safer."

He then explained that the bill was framed for two main objects in view: to equalize the cost of operating vessels, and second, to improve the safety of travel at sea.

"To accomplish these two things," he said, "we had to get better men at sea. This couldn't be done if these men were to be treated as chattel slaves, to be discriminated against."

"The shipowners of Europe had had Uncle Sam by the throat for sixty years had driven him off the ocean. This legislation takes the grip off, so naturally, these men growl, and they get the Chamber of Commerce to growl and misquote the law."

CAUSES OF DISTRACTION.

Furuseth explained that the American merchant marine had been killed by two things: First, the difference in cost of construction American and European ships, and second, the cost of operation. The only difference in the latter, he said, was in the wages.

"The American shipowners," he continued, "want a subsidy to offset and overcome this wage difference. Under our old laws and customs the United States has arrested sailors of foreign ships for breaking their labor contracts—that is, we turned them over to the shipowners if they deserted in New York or some other American port, when attracted by the higher wages paid by the American ship owners. In that manner has the United States forced American shipowners to pay a higher wage rate."

"Under this bill, all ships touching at American ports, no matter what their registry, will have to ship crews which stand the language test—that is, they must talk the language of their officers, and they must be paid an equal rate with other sailors on ships sailing to and from our ports. That will equalize wages and take away the foreign shipowners' advantage over the man whose ship sails under an American registry."

EXPLAINS LANGUAGE TEST.

Furuseth then explained the language test, telling of the necessity for this part of the bill, explaining how Chinese, Japanese and Japanese crews which could not speak a word of the language spoken by their officers, were gradually crowding the Caucasian sailor from the seas.

"What has this been doing?" the speaker shouted in question. "It has been educating the horrid Chinese and Japanese and Hindus to come here in the next century and take toll of this country as the natives of Europe have taken toll of the yellow seas."

He then discussed the Pacific Mail and Robert Dollar fights and the allegations that these two companies had been injured for the operation of the Seaman's law. He scoffed at the charges. He said, in conclusion:

"This bill will bring the American flag back to the seas. This great country will maintain its neutrality, and will be the strongest and safest of the world in the coming years. When wages have been equalized and the cost of ship construction has been equalized, you will see the ships of many countries registering under the American laws, that they may get the protection of the American flag and the advantages which will ultimately accrue to shipowners through the operation of the Seaman's bill."

BOOSTERS RAISE VOICES.

Lawrence introduced I. H. Mack, a Philadelphia music publisher, as the first speaker. Mack proved a "live one," and had the crowd in an uproar for five minutes.

"The people of Oakland," he said, "have planted railroads and steamship lines in this fertile soil of California, and expect a harvest of commerce and wealth. I most certainly wish it for you."

Declaring that he laid no pretension to the art of poetry writing, Mack then presented the following verse, asking that it be sung to the tune of "Tipperary." It was sung with much vociferous vocalization for five times. Here's the verse: It's a long way to come to Oakland, But it's well worth the while. There is progress and work in Oakland, And you're greeted with a smile. All the people who come to Oakland Never want to go away. It's a long, long way from East to Oakland, But it's fine place to stay. Mayor John L. Davis also spoke. He told of what he had done for the waterfront. A few words were said by Commissioner Harry S. Anderson, who had opened the celebration by running the big American flag to the top of the flagpole on the warehouse. Postmaster J. J. Rosborough, D. E. Perkins, J. H. Hartsook and Lawrence.

Burglar Sticks in Transom, Peels Coat

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 12.—Caught in the transom of the jewelry store of Isadore Steinberg, a burglar, after thoroughly ransacking the place, found himself trapped early this morning and was forced to slide out of his coat and abandon his loot in order to escape the police. The burglar had succeeded in gathering together $700 worth of jewelry, $8.30 in coin and other valuables, and was about to make his departure. Climbing over the transom in the manner he had entered, he caught his coat on a peg. On seeing the necessity of flight he slid out of the coat, leaving it behind him. A cart containing the stolen jewelry and the coat and hat were found by the officers. The burglar succeeded in getting away with the money and an insurance policy belonging to Steinberg.

State and City Retire From Liquor Fight

DENVER, Nov. 12.—The state and city of Denver will present no further arguments to the supreme court in the case involving Colorado's prohibition legislation, according to an announcement made today at the attorney general's office. The change of plans was made public shortly before the time for the court to convene. Arguments presented by counsel for the state contended that a city has no more right to act independently of state liquor legislation than it has to fix murder penalties. Counsel for the city argued that cities governed under special charter possess "special rights" in the regulation of the liquor traffic. The case is now before the court printed briefs previously having been filed.

Victor Emmanuel Is Honored on Birthday

PARIS, Nov. 12.—In a proclamation to the army issued on the birthday of King Victor Emmanuel, General Haivas dispatch from Rome, General Cadorna, the Italian commander-in-chief, paid tribute to the courage of the ruler, declaring:

"For two months his majesty, always first in danger and in example, has lived the life of the army. Inspired by him, with faith still more intense, the Italian army renews its vow to continue on the road to final victory which will assure the realization of our just national aspirations."

W. J. Bryan Scored by Congressman Gardner

CONCORD, N. H., Nov. 12.—A mass meeting held last night under the auspices of the New Hampshire League for National Defense, with Governor Roland H. Spaulding presiding, adopted resolutions calling upon President Wilson and the next Congress "to take steps necessary to make the country impregnable against foreign assault by land or sea." Gardner characterized the position of former Secretary of State Bryan as "the fatty degeneration of idealism." He said the plans of Secretary Daniels and Secretary Garrison for the extension of the Navy and Army were all right as far as they went.

Greece Discredits Albanian Uprising

SALONIKI, Greece, via Paris, Nov. 12, 2:35 a. m.—There was nothing to report today on the entire allied front. The reported rising of the Albanians against the Serbians is discredited in well informed circles.

CLOTHES BOUGHT LIKE VEGETABLES

Professor's Wife Criticizes Dress Customs in Aphoristic Speech.

"Many people buy furnishings as they buy vegetables," Mrs. Robert Harshe, wife of Professor Robert Harshe of Stanford, a director of the exposition, informed a gathering of several score last evening at the Young Women's Christian Association Auditorium.

Mrs. Harshe, whose subject was "Customs in Dress and Household Decoration," caused uneasy vibrations when she began to describe what women might wear but especially what they might not wear. When she condemned the blande who insists on wearing ornate and the stout housewife who insists on wearing a chainstitch hat, her listeners began furiously to fasten too revealing collars up to their chins and to study the bad points of each others' chapeaux.

Last night's lecture was the prelude to two courses that are to be given by Mrs. Harshe at the local association beginning Monday evening, November 15, at 7 o'clock. At these lectures women are to be told about dress as an art and how to transform room interiors, to stencil cloth, to select wall paper and to make paper patterns, among other things.

"To some of us," announced Mrs. Harshe, who was a symphony in violet and rose standing between the rose velvet hangings of the stage, "next year's styles are more important than our immortal souls. More important than the impending lean-chise. Almost more important than our first born's first tooth. But men forget that there was a time when they wore more costly clothes than women, and that they changed their modes more often."

Emperor of Japan Thanks Pres. Wilson

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—President Wilson today received a message from the emperor of Japan, thanking him for his congratulations on the accession of the emperor to the throne and expressing the hope that the good relations between the two countries may continue. The President had sent a message to the emperor earlier, wishing him a long and happy reign.

Has Faith in Remedy

Mrs. H. S. Carlson of Wakefield, Neb., testifies to the relief she experienced from the use of Fruitola and Traxo:

"I used Fruitola and Traxo with very good results. Having passed almost a couple of gall-stones with the first bottle. My skin is clear now, and I have a good appetite. I have lots of faith in Fruitola and Traxo."

Fruitola is a powerful lubricant for the intestinal organs, softening the hardened particles that cause so much suffering and expelling the congested waste in an easy, natural manner. A single dose is usually sufficient to clearly indicate its efficacy. Traxo is a splendid tonic—alternative that acts on the liver and kidneys, stimulates the flow of gastric juices to aid digestion and removes bile from the general circulation.

For the convenience of the public, arrangements have been made to supply Fruitola and Traxo through representative druggists. In Oakland they can be obtained at The Owl Drug Co. stores.

Save the Babies.

INFANT MORTALITY is something frightful. We can hardly realize that of all the children born in civilized countries, twenty-two per cent., or nearly one-quarter, die before they reach one year; thirty-seven per cent., or more than one-third, before they are five, and one-half before they are fifteen!

We do not hesitate to say that a timely use of Castoria would save a majority of these precious lives. Neither do we hesitate to say that many of these infantile deaths are occasioned by the use of narcotic preparations. Drops, tinctures and soothing syrups sold for children's complaints contain more or less opium or morphine. They are, in considerable quantities, deadly poisons. In any quantity, they stupefy, retard circulation and lead to congestions, sickness, death. Castoria operates exactly the reverse, but you must see that it bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher. Castoria causes the blood to circulate properly, opens the pores of the skin and allays fever.

EAST END CENTER DISCUSSES WORK

Improved Fire Protection and Other Betterments Are Reported.

MELROSE, Nov. 12.—Achievements of the East End Civic Center in procuring extra fire protection and other improvements for the district were recounted at a meeting of the center yesterday afternoon. The committee on fire protection reported that larger water mains would be placed south of East Montecito street from Fruitvale east as far as required. Hydrants will be furnished and the "Flying squadron" will have its headquarters in the Fifteenth avenue fire house. The center arranged to have a Christmas tree entertainment for the young people in the neighborhood. An entertainment committee was appointed consisting of Mrs. Harry Boyle, chairman; Mrs. G. S. Burtis, Mrs. A. Busch, Mrs. F. Partosa, Mrs. H. C. Newth, Mrs. G. Ingraham, Mrs. F. D. M. Dresbach, Mrs. G. Morgan and Mrs. A. T. Kalas. It was decided to have the Christmas tree entertainment Tuesday evening, December 21, in the Lockwood school auditorium. The following committee was appointed to assist in taking poor children to the exposition: Mrs. A. Busch, Mrs. H. Morgan, Mrs. A. Busch, Mrs. B. Lewis, Mrs. L. H. Lahr, Mrs. F. Dresbach, Mrs. F. Partosa, Mrs. L. Slattery, Mrs. G. Ingraham, Mrs. G. S. Burtis and Mrs. A. T. Kalas. A liberal donation will be given. All members were asked to attend the meeting to be held in the council chambers. The dance committee reported a balance of $3.10 after paying expenses. This sum was handed over to Principal C. H. Greenman for school use. The next meeting of the center of social nature will be held the fourth Tuesday of this month. Speakers will be invited to address the gathering and refreshments will be served.

S.F. Proves Mecca For Matrimony

But for Business, Woman Fails; Sails Away

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 12.—As a business proposition for a widow coming from a foreign land, Mrs. Emma Bolton found San Francisco a dismal failure. But as a matrimonial prospect that in sheer desperation Mrs. Bolton gathered her three children under arms, and with her last $500 bought tickets to take her back to her home in Sydney, Australia. In fourteen months that Mrs. Bolton resided here she failed in five business undertakings, and had eight proposals of marriage. On an average of every six weeks some man urged her to marry him. Mrs. Bolton sailed away today on the Maui, resolved to become a war nurse. When she landed here fourteen months ago she had $500.00. The immigration authorities demanded about permitting her to land, fearing she might become a public charge. Consul A. Carnegie Ross guaranteed to see that she did not become a public charge and took $500 which he placed in a bank as a reserve fund to send Mrs. Bolton and her children back, should she fail in her business enterprises. She first tried hair dressing, but gave it up. Then she tried maudering and two men proposed in two weeks while she fixed their nails and held their hands. Men's hands became obnoxious to her and she became a cashier in a restaurant. The proprietor proposed to her so she fled. She became a nurse and her first patient was a man. Before he got well he wanted to marry his nurse. She decided to become a movie actress, but—Well, she saw how the men swarmed about the movie actresses and it frightened her. She told the consul to draw

BOND ELECTION MEETING CALLED

Broadmoor Mothers' Club to Urge Carrying of Issue for Schools.

SAN LEANRO, Nov. 12.—A meeting to urge the carrying of the $10,000 bond election to provide funds for three new schools here will be held under the auspices of the Broadmoor Mothers' Club at the home of Mrs. F. B. Granger Tuesday evening. Members of the grammar school board of trustees will address the gathering and will explain the need for extra accommodation. The club women have investigated the overcrowded conditions at the public school and the club is strongly in favor of the bonds carrying. Arrangements for the conference were made at the last meeting of the Mothers' Club yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Granger. The bond election will be held November 23. In view of the importance of the issue a mass meeting of the citizens will be held before the election to discuss the overcrowding question. This meeting will probably be held some time next week by the school board. The court already possesses options on two pieces of land on which it is proposed to build two of the schools, while an offer of a third piece of property for this purpose has been made. JEWISH SCHOLAR TO LECTURE. Professor Nahum Schoultschitz of the University of Paris will speak this evening at 2130 Center street, Berkeley, on "The Hopes of the Jewish People From the Great War." Dr. Schoultschitz has just come from France as a special representative of the French republic to the exposition and his wide travels make him an authority on international problems. The public is invited to attend. out that last $300 and buy her tickets back to Sydney, where her sister will care for the three children. The oldest was only 8 years.

GAS EXPLOSION, SCHMIDT DEFENSE?

Questioning of Witness May Be Indication of Counsel's Plan.

By Associated Press. LOS ANGELES, Nov. 12.—The defense in the murder trial of Matthew A. Schmidt tonight attempted to convince the jury that the Los Angeles Times building was not the scene of the explosion of gas which killed Charles Hagerty today when Charles S. Bentley, mechanical superintendent of the newspaper, was cross-examined by counsel for Schmidt. Bentley, who testified yesterday to having identified the body of Charles Hagerty, one of the victims for whose murder Schmidt is on trial, was asked to state the time for the explosion. He stated that he did not know of other gas leaks had been stored about the building. ## Gallieni Thwarts Politics in Army

Sympathy Quality of Good Chief, He Says

PARIS, Nov. 12.—Minister of War Gallieni made his maiden speech to the Chamber of Deputies yesterday in reply to an interpellation by J. B. Monn regarding his circular order threatening dismissal to all who are incompetent or who tolerate incompetency in those under them. Monn remarked that members of parliament had not sufficient favor, although they had made recommendations which were not taken. He requested General Gallieni to mention the tribune and state whether members had intervened in the war ministry in a reprehensible manner. "I am a soldier and never have occupied myself with politics," said General Gallieni in complying with M. Monn's request. "All under whom I have served can tell you how I have understood my duty toward the country. I have taken the ministry of war only from devotion to the common cause we must all defend. This work would be condemned to failure if I could not count upon your unreserved co-operation." "I thought it useful to stop the plague of recommendations. Our soldiers should have the conviction that only equity and law determine our decisions. Every soldier has the right to make a complaint without hindrance from any person. That is the object of my instructions. All complaints will be examined with the greatest sympathy because sympathy is an essential quality of a military chief. It is necessary that every soldier should be able to make his complaint heard at the top of the military hierarchy." General Gallieni added that parliamentary control was necessary to unveil and repress abuses. M. Monn asked if any recommendation had been made by a member of parliament which was not for the best interests of the country, as might be supposed from press comment. The war minister responded that he was not responsible for press comment.

ALAMEDA CO. CHORUS TO SING ON CHILDREN'S DAY

Additional entertainment for the thousands of poor children who will be the guests of east bay philanthropic men and women at the Exposition Saturday of next week will be provided by the Alameda County 1915 Chorus, which will sing in one of the courts at the fair under the direction of Alexander Stewart. Announcement of this was made by the general committee in charge of the children's day this afternoon. More music will be given for the benefit of the children by the Oakland school bands. School Superintendent A. C. Barker and Musical Director Glenn H. Woods said today that organizations would be out in force on this day. Only children of 12 years of age or under who have never visited the exposition will make up members of the party of fortunate merry-makers. The thousands will be broken up into groups of 20, each to be under the supervision of a man or woman. A special meeting of the general committee has been called for 2:30 o'clock next Monday afternoon. The meeting will be held in the committee headquarters at Sixteenth street and San Pablo avenue.

CHILDREN MAY REPEAT JOAQUIN MILLER'S SONGS

Oakland school children who sang Joaquin Miller's "Columbus" at Festival Hall in the celebration commemorating the birth of the Sierra poet, have been asked to repeat their part of the program in this city. The Joaquin Miller Club has extended its thanks to the one hundred students who took part. From the Intermediate High School, a class of girls, under the direction of Miss Vanette Potter, rendered "Columbus." Pupils from the Sequoyah school also took a prominent part in the program.

REVOLVER IN POCKET EXPLODES, IS WOUNDED

W. D. Rostle, a salesman living at 330 Chestnut street, appeared at the emergency hospital at 1 o'clock this morning and was treated by Steward Charles Emley for a bullet wound in his right leg, which he stated had been accidentally inflicted by himself. Rostle explained that he was carrying a revolver for protection. It was in his overcoat pocket, he said, and in taking hold of it he was surprised and injured when the safety catch was open.

WARMING UP.

The Philippine question is destined to occupy an important place in the discussions in Congress this winter and already the stage is being set for many heated controversies. Probably the most significant of all is the call for an assembly of the provincial governors in Manila. It is the third assembly of governors since the regime of American government in the Islands, the first having been convoked by Governor-General Smith and the second by Governor-General Forbes.

The present call is unique in that it has been suggested, ostensibly, by the provincial governors themselves. Among other important matters they wish jointly to consider is the administrative and political code, which comes up for approval in the Philippine legislature, now in session. The governors want certain changes in the land tax and internal revenue laws, so as to permit the provinces to collect a greater share of the imposts now levied for their own use. Senor Sergio Osmena, boss of the Philippine assembly, and Senor Manuel Quezon, Philippine delegate to Congress, held a conference with the governors in Manila just before Senor Quezon's departure for the United States early in October and it may be safely assumed that an amicable agreement was reached as to procedure.

This move on the part of the Filipino politicians synchronizes perfectly with President Wilson's policy of Philippine self-government. These native politicians feel no concern over the fact that it contemplates something apart and far beyond the original intentions of the administration. It follows in admirable sequence the introduction of politics in the judiciary and the public schools. If Filipinization of the government is the policy of the President and Governor-General Harrison, it might as well be extended to the revenue department. The Filipino politicians will not suffer if the government becomes bankrupt and business and industry is destroyed. The lot to suffer falls to the Filipino people, and national disgrace is the share of the American people.

Osmena and Quezon know the power they wield in the Philippine assembly, but they are astute enough to appreciate the value of being able to say "the people" are in favor of more privilege and power. If Governor-General Harrison is to be criticized for the misfortune now hovering over the Islands it is largely justified by his inordinate early enthusiasm to carry out Mr. Wilson's policy of "spoils for the deserving" in self-government for the Filipinos. Once inaugurated the program could not be stopped.

The fight for a change in policy—to save the Filipinos from their own inadequacies, to restore America's standing among the nations of the world—will be sharply drawn this winter and there will be many spokesmen on the subject. Senor Quezon is in Washington with the Osmena-Quezon program; Brigadier General McIntyre, Chief of the Bureau of Insular Affairs, has just returned home after an official tour of the Philippine provinces and apparently is saving his report until Congress calls for it; General Clinton L. Riggs, who has just resigned as Secretary of Commerce and Police, is enroute to Washington; during the present year Congressman Clarence B. Miller of Minnesota, G. W. Edmonds of Pennsylvania, R. W. Austin of Tennessee, Clement Brumbaugh of Ohio and Senator Shafroth of Colorado have made tours of the Islands and each will have a tale to tell. President Wilson has announced he is still in favor of the independence bill defeated at the last session of Congress. If business and industry and the mass of Filipino people are given a chance to tell their story, the real story, of Democratic failure in the Islands, there may be hope for better things. Meanwhile, we shall watch and wait. This port is the most important on the lines of Philippine-American trade.

The report of the Comptroller of the Currency, just made public, of the resources of the national banks of the United States as found on his call of September 2nd last shows the total resources on that date to have been $12,267,090,429. This is $783,000,000 more than of September a year ago and $424,000,000 more than the greatest resources ever known in the history of national banking. The report spells "idle capital." Money is not being put into permanent constructive and industrial enterprises. People do not care to risk their money in new enterprises under the present attitude of the federal government—the administration policies of prosecution, harassment and destructive legislation. And under such conditions the banks do not care to loan their money in large amounts for new enterprises. Such boastful reports as that just made by Comptroller Williams are always possible when an administration displays hatred of business success and indifference to national prosperity.

INDIFFERENCE OF VOTERS.

The returns from Tuesday's election in San Francisco are not reassuring to those who like to think that "the voice of the people is the voice of God." Not because more votes were cast for one set of candidates than for another, which many considered preferable, but because a majority of the qualified elector did not vote at all.

There are 179,591 registered voters in that city, but 83,138 of these, quite a fraction less than one-half, went to the polls. This was the decisive election, wherein public officials were chosen to serve for four years. The primary election merely narrowed down the number of candidates, excepting that those getting a majority over all competitors were elected without further contest. This was the case as to two or three offices, but as to most of them, and as to all the supervisors, the issue was to be decided Tuesday. This last election was therefore of much more importance than the primary; yet at the primary 110,287 ballots were polled—36,219 more than at the final election.

The figures might be recapitulated to the effect that 60,234 voters who had registered failed to go to the primary polls, while 96,453 out of a registered total of 179,591, omitted to vote at the final election. Very casual investigation will disclose the fact that those who omitted to go to the polls were of that class that have most at stake—to whom good government is most vital. The election was really determined by those who failed to vote and not by those who voted. It is notorious that the class of citizens generally referred to as the "best element" are culpably indifferent about voting. But the class having little or nothing at stake—whom tax levies and assessments do not reach or, at the most, touch but lightly—are punctilious about exercising their elective franchise.

It may be said there is never an election whose issue may not be determined in accordance with the interests and judgment of the better elements of the electorate if those most vitally concerned perform their duty at the polls. This indifference of electors has come to be a grave abuse. It is even worse—a menace to good government. It has been widely discussed and some remedies proposed. Among these is to forfeit the elective franchise where it may not be used in a specified number of successive elections. This might be a sort of poetic justice, but it is doubtful if it could be made constitutional. What would be better is something that would instill a sense of duty and patriotism in laggards. This would be the work of a philosopher, perhaps, rather than a law-maker.

"THE RUT" AND AN OUTLOOK.

This is a composite editorial. By a striking coincidence the different paragraphs were produced almost simultaneously in Oakland and Berkeley yesterday:

"Corporations which have been called all possible vile names have been the first to deal righteously with their employees. What a shame to have these bodies, organized for earthly gain; lead in work for their former faithful employees while the church takes a back seat."—Dr. T. B. Holmes to the Northern California Baptist Convention in Berkeley.

"It is only a matter of time before we will give up country aid and spend our money on the great problems of the city. Some of our country charges would be better off if they didn't get any help—they would be independent and self-supporting. Aren't we big enough to get out of some of the ruts we've gotten into and stayed in for so many years? Let's make a start now. Our future depends on it!"—Former Lieutenant-Governor A. J. Wallace in the general conference of the committee of Home Missions and Church Extension of the Methodist Episcopal Church in Oakland.

"The greatest good in the history of Christianity will take place at the end of the war. The violence, the blood, the awful losses of life and property are preparing the people of Europe for the reception of essential Christianity—real Christianity. There is now a very significant spiritual movement in all of the warring nations. The minds of the people are turning to essential religion and distinguished from all formal and conventional religion in a very marked way."—Rev. John L. Nielsen, Bishop of the Methodist Episcopal Church of Europe in an interview with a Tribune reporter.

Don't be impatient should your mail be late. Just bear in mind that the Postoffice department has ordered all postmasters to economize on twine and that the time of the postal clerks may be partly spent in splicing the scraps of twine received on incoming mail. This procedure saves the federal government a few thousand dollars annually. Or the letter-carrier may be taking a few minutes off to block his hat, correctly number his badge, repair the frayed piping on his service uniform, patch his shirt, press his trousers or polish his shoes. The Oakland postmaster has ordered that all these things be done carefully and a letter-carrier can't hire a valet out of the salary the government pays him.

The Japanese people have been celebrating the coronation of rulers for over twenty-five hundred years, but yesterday ceremonies at Kyoto to mark the accession of His Majesty, Yoshihito, are the first to which foreign state representatives have been invited.

THE JESTER.

Perplexing.
A society girl approached Caruso in the Hotel Knickerbocker, New York, the other day.
"Mr. Caruso, can't I put you down for a couple of tickets? We're selling a raffle for a poor man—"
"I don't," returned the singer, "because I wouldn't know what to do with a poor man if I won him."—Chicago Tribune.

It was her first voyage, and, of course, she was nervous. Moreover, she had made herself late on the steamer because of her foolish questions.
It fell to the lot of the steward to serve her lunch.
"Here's this ship tip a good deal," she remarked, "but I don't like it."
"The vessel, madam," he replied, "is merely a means to a good example to the passengers"—Wichita Beacon.

Plan to Reciprocate.
"Well, what can I do for you, Sam?" asked Jones as the colored waiter who usually served him at the restaurant entered the office.
"I got a chance to change my position, boss. Kin yo say a good word for me?" Say I'm honest, an' such."
"I know, of course, that you're a good waiter, Sam, but how do I know you're honest?"
"Well, jes' say 'o' think I'm honest, Dat'll do."
"All right, Sam; anything to oblige you?"
Thank you, boss, thank you very much. When yo comes ovah tomorrow be sure to sit at main table. I'll give yo a sh' check."—Pathfinder.

In Fashion.
"I have never owned any automobile," said the man who hadn't yet paid for his home, "but I can say one thing in praise of them."
"What is that?" inquired Henderson.
"They have made mortgages respectable."—Judge.

Record Gone.
"So the family in the flat next yours has a Victrola, eh? How many records have they?"
"Heaven only knows! But they broke their best previous record, last Sunday, by five hours and 25 minutes."—Puck.

TWENTY YEARS AGO TODAY

The Harrison school is annexed and will be ready for occupancy next Monday. The Board of Education and the Board of Public Works will visit and thoroughly examine the building next Saturday. The building is of the latest style in architecture, two stories in height and able to accommodate 400 pupils.
The Southern Pacific Company has filed a demurrer to the suit of E. S. Buss, well known to the city, for the right of that corporation to charge a five-cent fare on the Seventh street local road. The main ground for the demurrer is the allegation that the complaint does not specify with whom the San Francisco and Oakland ever contracted to carry passengers free.

The concert of Miss Grace Carroll will be given in Hamilton hall tonight. Alma Berglund is to sing and Dr. Gilbert Graham is to contribute with tenor selections.

Last evening the Royal Ladies of Clan Macdonald gave a literary entertainment and dance at College hall, Twelfth and Harrison streets.
Miss Flint of this city was among the vocalists at a delightful concert given in Santa Ana.

Miss Simon P. Hussey of Anderson, Santa Clara county, and a former resident of Oakland, is paying a brief visit to relatives and friends here.
Miss Craig of this city is visiting her cousin, Miss Lunt Pacey in Chico.

W. B. Weber and wife of this city were visitors at Napa the first of the week.

WHAT IS DOING TODAY.
National Grange convention.
Commercial Club luncheon to Edward Tref at Hotel Oakland.
Beret performance of the "Pirates of Penzance" at Christ church, Alameda.
Oakland Center at Hotel Oakland.
Faculty Club dance at the University of California.
Guild of St. Michael's Lutheran Bazaar.
Students' Missionary Conference, Berkeley.
Alameda Moose Hall Association Carnival.

WHAT IS DOING TOMORROW.
Chamber of Commerce luncheon.
Women's Athletic Day at the University of California.
Fourteenth annual banquet of the Mining Association of the University of California.
Overseas Club concert and bazaar.
Spanish Club of the University of California dance.

U. C. Camp of Woodmen hall at East Shore Park.
Annual Students' Missionary Conference at the University of California.

NOTABLE PERSONS.
Wallace Irwin, popular writer of verse and fiction, will be married to Miss Letitia McDonald of Louisville, January 8. The announcement of the engagement was made today by the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Donald McDonald. Miss McDonald, besides being a writer of repute, is one of Louisville's most charming members of society.

THE TWO GREATEST HARVESTS IN HISTORY!

WESTERN BUSINESS CONSERVATIVE

Judge Robert S. Lovett, chairman of the executive committee of the Union Pacific Railroad Company, is none too optimistic after completing his annual inspection trip over the lines of the system. "Throughout the west," he says, "no one looks for any great boom in business until after the war. In other words, business is being conducted along most conservative lines. The western railroads are buying very little new material, rolling stocks, etc."

"I found conditions throughout the west and northwest much improved over those existing on my last inspection trip over the lines of the company. The sugar interests from Colorado to the Pacific Coast have been much encouraged by the announcement from legislative sources in Washington that there is a likelihood of a restoration of the tariff on sugar."

"In the northwest the lumber industry, although somewhat better than for the last couple of years, has not experienced the same degree of improvement as other lines of commerce."

"The multiplicity of conflicting regulations is the same of the railroad situation today. I suppose the carriers will have to suffer from this evil until some remedy is found for it. There are too many regulatory bodies in the various states, which has rendered it extremely difficult for companies to do new financing. It is not that the various commissions are hostile to the railroads, but nearly every large railroad's lines tap several states and to raise fresh funds permission of the commission located in each state must be obtained. The laws of the different states are so conflicting that much delay and inconvenience is caused as a result."

"I believe earnings of the western railroads will show substantial improvement during the next three or four months, because, in addition to the war order business, they will be called upon to move the large crops of this year. The Union Pacific's earnings are showing betterment, and I expect they will continue to do so at least during the crop-moving period."

AN EXCEPTION.
"The ideal is seldom attainable."
"Not so in the case of a suburban home," chirped the real estate agent. "Now, I got a place for sale on easy payments."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

THE LADY AND THE EARTH

So lightly sang the troubadour,
"O lady, fair,
I praise as has been done for you
Your charms so rare
I'd give you jewels whose design
Snowed grace complete,
I'd place the world if it were mine
There at your feet."

"But since the world is not mine own
To give away
I shall not waste in plaintive tone
A wishful lay.
I'll join with others, just the same,
To win for you
The vote, that you the world may claim,
As is your due."

—Washington Star.

A "PAWKEE CHIEF."

Judge Robert S. Lovett, chairman of the executive committee of the Union Pacific railroad, said in Kansas City Saturday night that business is booming both east and west. And Judge Lovett should know, for you remember that Mr. Carnegie said once that Judge Lovett was a "pawkee chief"—which seems to be the old Scotch for the fresh American "wise guy."—Kansas City Star.

FOUR INJURED IN AUTO MISHAPS

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 12.—Four persons, including a pretty young woman, were injured in an automobile accident early this morning, due to the slippery conditions of the streets. Those hurt were:

MRS. PEARL COCHRAN, 20 years of age, Columbia Hotel; fractured skull, internal injuries; may die.

HARRY ESPEY, 4534 Balboa, roadhouse proprietor; abrasions of the face and head, bruises of the arms and legs.

ARTHUR CLEAL, Volmer apartments; bruises, shaken up.

FRANK TODD, 63 Sharon street; lacerations arms and hands.

The first accident occurred at 3:10 a. m. A car driven by Cleal and containing Espey and Mrs. Cochran as passengers, was speeding eastward along Fulton street, when at Tenth avenue Cleal attempted to turn from the car tracks. The rails were wet with the early morning dew and the car skidded. In seeking to right it, Cleal grabbed the wheel and his car turned turtle.

PASSENGERS TRAPPED.
He was thrown clear, escaping injury.

AGREE ONLY ON DISAGREEMENT THEN WIFE WOULD STOP SUIT MANOR DIVORCE PLANS HALTED

In nine years of married life Jessie E. Manor and Lawrence Charles Manor, attorney for the Pacific Gas and Electric Company in San Francisco, were unable to agree until six days ago when both agreed, without argument, that Mrs. Manor should have a divorce.

But this strange sensation of agreement, the first in nine years, has been ruled shattered. Mrs. Manor has decided that she does not want a divorce; her husband still thinks she should have one, and the old relation of disagreement has been resumed.

It was six days ago that the agreement came. Both rushed to the offices of Attorney T. C. Christianson, and a complaint was drawn up alleging that Manor had been cruel to Mrs. Manor. The complaint was filed in the Superior Court.

"We are both agreed," Mrs. Manor told Christianson, "that this must be gotten through with as soon as possible."

"Yes, by all means, we are agreed on that," chimed in Manor. Christianson agreed, and had Judge Wells refer the divorce matter to Court Commissioner Clarence Crowell. It was to have come up for a hearing at 1 o'clock this afternoon.

But Mrs. Manor chafed at the strange conditions of affairs, and late yesterday afternoon decided to again disagree. She has had her attorney, John G. Weit, file a dismissal of her action.

The Manors were married in Redding in March, 1906. Mrs. Manor avers that since that time agreement has been a total stranger in their home, 424 Sixty-ninth street, in getting on that way, her husband called her a fool, told her he was deaf when she asked questions, forgot to bring food home for the family dinners and had a "grouchy" disposition. The couple have a six-year-old daughter, Constant.

Manor is one of the most prominent attorneys in San Francisco, and has offices in the Pacific building.

Manor is also responsible for an accident at Valencia street, in which Frank Todd was hurt. He was on his way to work at 7:30 a. m. and was standing on the steps of a jitney. The car struck a wet pavement and swerved in its tracks, throwing him off. He also was taken to the Central Emergency hospital.

CLAIM POLICE TURNS ON GAS WINKED AT CRIMES

OAKVILLE, Nov. 12.—Charges that the Chico police department, under Marshall Goe, has refused to enforce the laws against disorderly places that had been conducted in an inefficient and careless manner are being aired before the grand jury here.

Out of a brief investigation at Chico by the city board when it was said that two officers failed to use ordinary means to prevent the suicide of E. E. Martin has developed a promise to be unusually sweeping and one that will furnish sensations for weeks to come.

The shakeup of Goe's police force has so far accomplished the removal of Officer J. E. Light and Desk Sergeant Sam Fisher, and the firing of unsavory charges by Mrs. Emma Roberts, member of the board of trustees, in which Marshall Goe is attacked as unfit for office and City Trustee A. M. Scott is alleged to be the owner of a questionable resort.

WOMAN IS WITNESS.
Mrs. Roberts was the chief witness. Her entire testimony was a direct attack upon Marshall Goe and City Trustee A. M. Scott. Mrs. Roberts charged Goe with directly responsible for the demoralization in the Chico police conditions; that he placed certain limitations upon policemen under his direction, preventing them from enforcing the law impartially; that he permitted houses of prostitution to flourish in Chico, and that he interfered in general with the enforcement of the law.

She declared she wanted the jury to get to the bottom of the conditions as they existed, in order that it could not be hushed up by the deposition of Officers Light and Fisher. She demanded that the jury go after the higher-ups.

GOE CHARGED WITH FAILURE.
Mrs. Roberts' testimony went into every detail of the condition of the police department. She told of her attempts for enforcement of the law in Chico and charged Goe with failure to obtain its impartial enforcement.

She charged Goe with permitting prostitution to be carried on openly, and cited a number of specific instances. The jury inquired at length into the character of Hotel Chico, where Mrs. Roberts declared prostitution flourished and which was notorious for its violation of the Red Light Law.

Mrs. Roberts was also questioned at length about gambling conditions existing in Chico, with particular reference to charges of gambling made by Desk Sergeant Fisher and about the private signal by which the City Attorney Kennedy was a poker game.

The witness stated that after finding out that gambling was carried on in a room over the lightest saloon, she found the exact location by going through a window to a point where she could see into the room. She stated on this occasion no gambling was going on, but the room evidently was fitted for gambling.

"SIGNALS" TO OFFICERS.
Desk Sergeant Fisher was next called upon. His testimony was along the same line as the charges made by him before the City Trustees in Chico. He stated that Attorney Kennedy had instructed him to never intrude on a poker game in which he was playing, but had arranged a secret signal by which he could be called out. Fisher stated he was to "oot the horn of Kennedy's auto three times sharply, then pausing and then three more sharp toots."

TURNS ON GAS IN SUICIDE ATTEMPT

Out of work and despondent, F. M. Thompson, formerly employed as a pay check clerk in the United States Navy, attempted suicide this morning by inhaling illuminating gas in his room, 440 Eighth street. The fumes were noticed by Mrs. Louise Blane, proprietress of the lodging house. She entered the room and discovered Thompson in bed with the gas tubes between his lips.

Thompson was taken to the receiving hospital, where he was restored to consciousness. He stated that he had been unable to get work and was despondent and had no wish to live. He will be covered, Mrs. Thompson, mother of the perky, lives at 2555 Gough street, San Francisco.

WOMAN KILLS SELF.
Mrs. Johanna Henneberry, wife of former Councilman James P. Henneberry took her own life by swallowing strychnine at her home, 715 Fourteenth avenue, last night. Mrs. Henneberry had been ill for some time.

"I shall die before tonight. I do not want to live," Mrs. Henneberry told her nurse, Miss Ethel Diders. Miss Diders tried to quiet her, and assured her that she would recover from her illness.

That Mrs. Henneberry had meditated suicide for some time was indicated by the fact that she had obtained a bottle of strychnine, purchased to kill gophers, several months ago, and had secreted it under the mattress of her bed. The poison had been kept in the garage, and Mrs. Henneberry apparently obtained possession of it some time ago before she was confined to her bed.

Miss Diders, the nurse, was forced to leave the room for a few minutes last night. When she returned Mrs. Henneberry was beyond human aid. Dr. C. T. Divine, who had been attending her, was summoned, but death intervened before his arrival.

LIVED HERE 50 YEARS.
Mrs. Henneberry was 60 years of age. She had lived in Oakland for almost half a century and was well known by old residents of the city.

Her husband was a grief-stricken over the death of his wife. It was with difficulty that the physician and nurse were able to convince him that the tragedy had occurred. Henneberry was a claimant of Oakland 18 or 20 years ago, representing the First ward. He has been engaged in the draying business here for many years.

Her remains have been removed to the morgue, where an inquest will be held. No arrangements have been made for the funeral.

Witness also declared Trustee Scott was the owner of a hotel used as a house of prostitution. He related that the officers were not supposed to do their full duty, but what not to do.

Officer Arthur Light, also a discharged officer, testified that there were certain limitations for their work. He cited an instance where a prominent Chico resident in an intoxicated condition had driven his horse into the cafe at the Hotel Diamond and nothing was ever said or done. When Mrs. Henneberry made it largely depended on who the person was or how he was dressed, the witness declared.

Reports that members of the Chico Police Department frequented saloons and drank to excess are also being investigated.

Garden Produce Tempt Thieves Harvest Entire Field in Planned Raid

SAN LEANDEO, Nov. 12.—Thieves harvested a field of pumpkins for Col. F. S. Hastings and their plans to carry off several truck loads of the vegetable were frustrated. I. H. Begier, a neighboring farmer, noticed the pumpkins piled up against the fence. Col. Hastings, in answer to his inquiry, said he had authorized no one to gather the pumpkins from the field. During the night a truck drove up at the end of the field, but the would-be thieves became scared and made off before the police could be summoned.

Begier missed a wagon load of tomatoes from a shed at his farm. The wife of his foreman saw three men drive up in a machine, lead up with tomatoes and go off. They first ascertained from her that her husband and other of the farm hands were not near.

Other thefts believed to have been committed by the same gang are reported in the same section of town. A bicycle belonging to a son of Mrs. Purdum on East Fourteenth street was stolen from a shed. Farmers have called for police aid to protect them against thefts of garden produce.

FUSE FOUND ON SHIP; LATE FIRE VICTIM

HALIFAX, N. S., Nov. 12.—What is believed to be a piece of time fuse was found last night by stowaways among packages of sugar which were removed from the steamer Rio Lages. The steamer put in here on November 5, with her cargo of sugar on fire, and much of it was destroyed. The Rio Lages was bound from New York for Queenstown.

been committed by the same gang are reported in the same section of town. A bicycle belonging to a son of Mrs. Purdum on East Fourteenth street was stolen from a shed. Farmers have called for police aid to protect them against thefts of garden produce.

Recalls How Big Ed Crane Once Astounded English Cricket Fans.

(By RIGHT FIELD.)

Tim Murnane, the gray-haired president of the New England League and sporting editor of the Boston Globe who is in San Francisco at the moment, has had

"I have had some very interesting experiences in the baseball line.

"He came to San Francisco away back in 1893 and played one year with the Hipp Bitters team of Rochester, N. Y., against the Chicago and Cincinnati teams. This was a member of the first professional baseball team that made a trip to England.

"Longmeyer said that when he and we got to Essex, in England, there were about 5000 people on the cricket field of that town and among them some of the most famous men that the wickets of Essex of throwing came up and the Englishmen laughed when it was stated that the greatest American pitcher, Crane had thrown baseballs.

"A mere trip," said one of them.

"The baseball is as a feather to a cricket ball," said another.

"I can compete with you in throwing the cricket ball."

"What is the world's record for throwing a cricket ball?" asked Harry Palmer, the sporting writer.

"One hundred and fourteen yards," was the reply.

"What the distance was marked off by a surveyor and big Ed Crane took the ball in hand while full 100 Crane stood around. Crave walked up to the line and threw the ball. The Englishmen were dumfounded in getting a hit, and then imagine their surprise when Williamson and Pfeffer were the first against the ball. Crave threw the ball about the English cricket players as throwers compared to the American ball player.

"I think," said Longmeyer, "was the first thrower I ever saw. He was as true as a die and no distance seemed too far for him. He easily won the contest. I was in the crowd at the world at Cincinnati when the Enquirer conducted the contest. I remember seeing him time and again when playing for the Cincinnati team. He was a fast runner got within a step or two of the bag and then like a shot from a rifle sent it into Anson's hands.

"I have seen him throw a side, and I guess I have seen him all in the big leagues."

BOXING FINALS WILL BE HELD TONIGHT

The opening of the international boxing tourney at the San Francisco Civic Auditorium brought out a good crowd of spectators. The first bout was a close contest, the defeat of Phil Noonan, who lost to Freddie Eberling of the Visitation Valley A. C., where were few surprise endings. Charles Leonard, the light-heavyweight New Yorker, failed to live up to his K. O. win last night. He showed plenty of fight, but was outboxed by the champion, Mickey Haney of the Olympic Club, from beating him all the way in the last round. Leonard had the first two rounds, but lost the decision, which the fans loudly booed.

The rest of the bouts were kind of anticlimax. The first was a close one, when Bill J. Heroux, Oakland's champion heavy of the town, meets Arthur Sherlian, eastern champ, and Leonard meets the champion of the C. O. C. of America, the finals through a clean knockout of Al Byers of Portland. There are six other championship bouts on the card.

LOS ANGELES HI WILL MEET U. C. BABES

The University of California Freshmen and the blue and gold Second Varsity football teams will meet tomorrow afternoon at the local fans tomorrow at California Field. The Babes will face the varsity team which has been undefeated since Los Angeles, while the second string men will face the eleven representing the Davis State team.

The Freshmen lineup will probably be the same that beat the University of California last year. They were defeated two weeks back. Three graduates of the Los Angeles High school will be playing for the first time. They are Bill Brown, Pat McGuire, Freshman captain and star this year, Moose right halfback, and Al Smith left tackle. All attention was turned to the game yesterday when it was learned that Los Angeles High last year and will be the same tomorrow. The southernners have a very strong eleven this year, and they are expected to win. The Babes are just switched from rugby, and should make the Babes a merry time.

In the case of the Davis Farm team some of the lads who just missed making the Varsity will be seen in action

SEEK SAILORS WHO KILLS WIFE WHEN WON HERO MEDALS SHE WOULD LEAVE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—Information is wanted by Secretary Redfield as to the whereabouts of sixteen members of the former crew of the American steamer Kronland of the Red Star Line, to whom medals awarded by Congress for their heroism in rescuing eighty-nine persons from the burning steamer Vollaro, in the North Atlantic, were given in October, 1914, and are to be presented.

Congress by resolution adopted March 14, 1914, expressed its thanks to the Kronland's officers and crew for their gallant work and appropriated $1000 for the purchase of a clock and watch and chain for Captain Paul H. Krenbohm and gold, silver and bronze medals for the others. Secretary Redfield was authorized to make the purchases.

Now the Kronland's officers and crew, numbering forty, have received their gifts except the sixteen whom Secretary Redfield is having considerable difficulty in finding. The medals were to be fastened to the men who have already received medals, one was found in London and the others in the Bulgarian army.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 12.—Answered to a question asked by a lady: "I have a son, Thomas Gardner, twenty-four, a father and an old wife, but no girl, and a butcher wife, and was himself charged with only one girl, and a woman, a special officer, after he had started, Nelson in the army." Gardner, he became a father, but he told me that he did not care to go to the army as he had intended to leave him. A few minutes before, the husband stated, the couple quarreled because Mrs. Gardner had not been home to prepare supper.

Officer Nelson and Gardner after being attacked when he attempted to molest the woman, and the woman was removed by Mrs. Louise Farmer, a neighbor, when she heard Mrs. Gardner screaming.

Mrs. and Mrs. Gardner formerly lived at Fresno, where Mr. Gardner's father is now. Mrs. Anna Lindquist, mother of Mrs. Gardner, lives at Kingsburg, a short distance south of Fresno.

Here are four out of twelve new houses completed or nearly complete, on Mandana Boulevard, a 100-foot avenue, the main pleasure drive connecting Lakeside Park district with Crocker Tract, universally acknowledged to be the finest residence district in Oakland. Nothing touching these houses in location, price or quality has ever been offered in this city. Two features alone place them in a class by themselves—the fact that though the prices run from $5150 to $5400 for 7 and 8 rooms, bath, shower and sleeping porch, these homes are finished in Southern Gum and Mahogany, and have hardwood floors in every room. No description can do justice to these beautiful homes. They must be seen. Two of the above houses have already been sold. Deals on others are nearly closed. See them at once.

Just complete and ready for inspection. Wonderfully well built. No better in Oakland. Yet wholesale buying of lumber and materials, an efficient building organization, quick sales and small profit make it possible to offer this $4500 or $4800 house for $3800; $380 cash, $38 per month. Eleven of these houses already sold. This will be snapped up quickly. Now is the time to see it. Six rooms, enclosed sleeping porch, bath and shower. HARDWOOD FLOORS IN EVERY ROOM UPSTAIRS AND DOWN. Fireplace in living room. Built-in buffet. Linoleum on floor in kitchen. Large all-finished cement basement. Big solid cement porch. Yard in lawn. Cement walks all laid. This beautiful home occupies lot 40x100 in restricted district, one block from carline, and has a most wonderful view looking towards the hills.

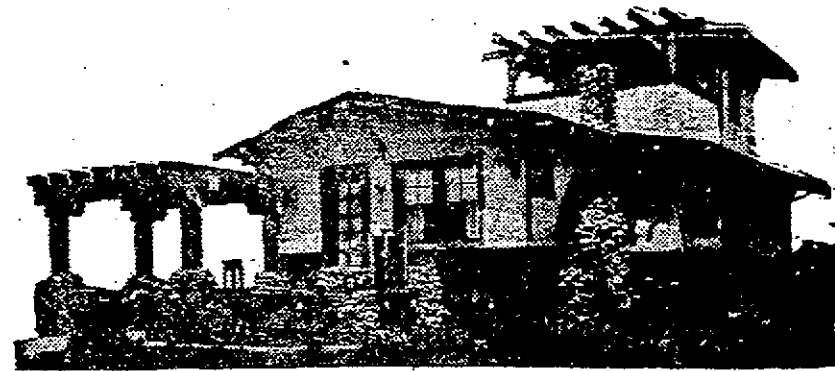

PRICE CUT TO THE BONE
$275 Down, $27.50 Month

Here is a 2-story, 6-room house on lot 40x100, in a restricted district, one block from S. F. transportation, which you can buy for $275 cash if you act quickly. Hardwood floors, fireplace in living room, two toilets; three bedrooms from schools and stores. There are three bedrooms and all modern built-in conveniences. At a price of $2750—$275 down, $27.50 a month—this house is a snap.

$25 for You

Realizing that there are many newcomers in Oakland with whom we may not be in touch, as a part of our house-advertising and selling campaign we make the following offer: Send us the name, address and full information of anyone you think might purchase a home at the right price on easy terms. If they purchase from us within 90 days we will mail you a check for $25.00. Send as many names as you like. If the name you send has already been filed by someone else, you will be notified at once.

BALANCE LIKE RENT
Artistic Oakland Home

A most artistic and unusual Home. Different from the ordinary run of bungalows. Price, for immediate sale, at least $750 below actual cost. A bargain for somebody. Five rooms, bath and sleeping porch. Clever, cosy built-in features. Hardwood floors. Dining and living rooms paneled in elm. Attractive rustic fireplace in natural stone. Beautiful big south porch with solid stone piers at corners. Two blocks from S. F. transportation in restricted district of modern homes. Nice level lot 40x100, south-east exposure. Garage, yard all in lawn. All street improvements complete.

Two of the Finest Homes in Oakland, on a 100 Foot Boulevard
FIVE MINUTES' WALK FROM LAKE MERRITT

The 8-room house in the background is a particularly big bargain, on easy terms. It is really a three-story house, as the basement is all above ground, and is finished in the beautiful new Tennessee gum, which was used exclusively for interior finish in the Bohemian Club, San Francisco. In addition to the three bedrooms upstairs, there are two sleeping porches and separate shower. Furnace on lower floor, excellent hardware, glass doorknobs, Germanstone floor in bath, indirect system of electric lighting and spacious closets, are some of the features of this unusual and remarkably well-built house. The house in the foreground, erected by the same builder, contains 9 spacious rooms and sleeping porch, 2 baths and 2 toilets. It is admirably arranged and heated with a hot air furnace. One block from Lakeshore Avenue carline, 11 minutes from city hall.

PRICED AT ABSOLUTE COST

One of the most charming residence properties in that exclusive and most attractive residence park, CROCKER HIGHLANDS. Just completed; 8 large sunny rooms; with commodious dressing room and 3 baths; the exterior is "Kellastone," the last word in cement finish; the entrance hall, living room, dining room and sun-room are beautifully finished in southern gum; the wall papers (velours) are exclusive patterns, hand-made and specially designed; plate glass windows, French doors, two fireplaces, four large bedrooms (one a combination sleeping porch); a dressing room; light, airy closets galore; 3 baths with the most modern plumbing; maid's room with separate bath; two sun porches; cement-finished basement; furnace; cement driveway; double garage; lawn, flowers; lot 65x120. This house was built by this Company and will be sold on very liberal terms at the absolute cost price. For inspection, phone Oak. 1750, and we will gladly place an automobile at your disposal.

Oakland is growing. We must expand. In December we shall remove to completely remodeled and spacious offices at 1308 Broadway, formerly The Forum

AVOID ALL MEAT IF KIDNEYS AND BLADDER BOTHER

Uric Acid in Meat Excites Kidneys and Irritates the Bladder.

Take Salts at First Sign of Bladder Weakness or Kidney-Backache.

Kidney and Bladder weakness result from uric acid, says a noted authority. The kidneys filter this acid from the blood and pass it on to the bladder, where it often remains to irritate and inflame, causing a burning, scalding sensation, or setting up an irritation at the neck of the bladder, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night. The sufferer is in constant dread, the water passes sometimes with stinging sensation and is very painful, again there is difficulty in voiding it.

Bladder weakness, most folks call it, is an extremely annoying and sometimes very painful, it is really one of the most common ailments to overcome. Get out your glasses of Jad Salts from your pharmacist and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, continue this for two or three days. This will neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation to the bladder and urinary organs, which then act normally again.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless, and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is used by thousands of folks who are subject to urinary disorders caused by uric acid irritation. Jad Salts is splendid for kidneys and causes no bad effects whatever.

Here you have a pleasant, effervescent, lithia-water drink which quickly relieves bladder trouble.—Advertisement.

NATIVES TO GIVE BALL FOR HOMELESS CHILDREN

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 12.—The committee of Native Sons and Daughters of the Golden West on homeless children are bending all efforts in the direction of making a great success of the masquerade ball on Thanksgiving eve in Pavilion Bldg., San Francisco, on behalf of the fund for the homeless children of the state, irrespective of creed.

The local committee of arrangements having named Miss Marie Roderick of Oro Fino, queen of the masquerade, she has appointed as her special guests of honor Miss Theresa Wallace and Miss Edith Fredericks, members of the same prior.

Louis F. Erb has been appointed floor director for that evening and he has selected as his assistants: Thomas P. O'Brien, Walter V. Walsh, R. Kahn and Joseph Rosa. As the floor committee he has named C. E. A. Creighton, Benjamin Nelson, Charles Kaiser, D. A. Curtin, Henry Dahl, E. C. Wood, F. Schmidt, C. Douglas, F. Mariani, W. E. Bassett and T. F. Richardson.

Those members of the committee who are in charge of the general details are: A. A. Creighton, president; Basil Cohn, vice-president; Mae Edwards, secretary; and Eugene E. Fischer, treasurer. Mayor James Rolph has accepted the invitation to lead the grand march on the night of the ball.

FATAL LEAP FROM CAR.

Mrs. Mary Manilla, 1117 Peralta street, jumped from a swiftly-moving Twelfth-street car at Peralta street last night and sustained a fracture of the skull, which later resulted in her death. She was removed to the Receiving hospital and thence to the Oakland Central, where she died. She was a laundry worker. An inquest will be held at the morgue.

WILL NOT ARBITRATE.

WHEELING, W. Va., Nov. 12.—Butchers and meat cutters who are on strike here through a committee last night noted representatives of the meat packers that they would not arbitrate their differences. They declared that they would remain out until a ten per cent increase in wages and other demands were granted.

WOMEN in the NEWS

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 12.—Mrs. Anna Stewart Dean, heiress to a fortune of several hundred thousand dollars, wife of Paul Dean, western representative of the Lottia Trust Co., has been in the city at the Hotel Stewart for the last ten days while her husband, whose headquarters are in Denver, has directed a search in every important city east of Denver in an endeavor to find her and effect a reconciliation. He traced Mrs. Dean to Salt Lake City, where her grandfather, James, a wife to Seattle and Portland, and finally to San Francisco.

Yesterday he learned that Mrs. Dean was in San Francisco, and he now aims to be married west to make his appeal. Proceeding him was an article of Mrs. Dean, said to have been the one to first learn of her presence in the city, and the article has been reaching with the young wife to return to her husband, but, it is said, without a great deal of encouragement.

LOTTIA TELLS WHY SHE NEVER WED

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 12.—"What was Lottia's romance? Why has she never married?" These questions, which follow every woman who does not take the yoke, have followed Miss Lottia Crabtree, said San Francisco stage idol, for many years.

She answered them yesterday, in her apartments at the St. Francis, where she is preparing to again leave the city of her triumphs. This is her answer:

"I have loved humanity so much that I never could concentrate my love on any one man. That is why I have never married."

"I never was intended to marry."

CUSTOM HOUSE TO HAVE NEW DEPT.

Law and Correspondence Division Is Placed in Working Order.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 12.—A new department of the custom house will be placed in working order on Monday in accordance with an order issued by Collector of the Port J. O. Davis in which a number of changes in organizations have been made. The new division will be known as the Law and Correspondence department and will be in charge of Special Deputy Collector C. L. Brown of Berkeley. He will have as assistants Col. C. H. Binn and H. E. Farmer. This department was suggested by the customs efficiency commission which recently examined into the methods of the local custom house. The changes which now go into effect will result, it is believed, in placing larger responsibility on heads of departments, allowing them to decide on questions pertaining to their branch of the service without an appeal to the collector except in an emergency. Apart from the new department, other changes are:

Special Deputy Collectors W. B. Hamilton and C. L. Brown will be in charge of the entire force. Deputy Collector N. S. Farley in charge of the marine entry warehouse and liquidation section, mail and importations in charge of acting Deputy Collector R. H. Wilcox.

NEW VOTING PRECINCTS.

MARTINEZ, Nov. 12.—County Clerk Jasper H. Wells announced yesterday that he is at work upon plans for the creation of additional voting precincts in Contra Costa county, owing to the increase in voting population and to conform to the new state law which fixes a limit of 210 voters to the precinct. According to Wells the number of precincts in the county will be increased from seventy, as at present, to eighty-two.

MARTINEZ SEEKING WATER.

MARTINEZ, Nov. 12.—The Martinez development board yesterday appointed a committee to consider an augmented water supply for the city. The committee will report to the board of trustees as to the advisability of taking water from the Port Costa Water Company. The committee includes the following: A. Baccliff, T. B. Swift, J. E. Miller, A. E. Dunkel and Henry J. Curry.

ESTATE GOES TO CHILDREN.

MARTINEZ, Nov. 12.—The final distribution of the $36,000 estate of the late Peter Thomson of Lafayette was ordered in court here yesterday. The entire estate goes share and share alike to the five children of Mrs. Annette Thomson, to whom her husband upon his death bequeathed his estate, but who died a few months later without leaving a will.

INTER-SCHOOL DEBATE.

MARTINEZ, Nov. 12.—The first interscholastic debate of the Inter-city Debating League will be held tonight, when the teams of the Alhambra, Fairfield and Napa high schools debate the question of the desirability of the state control of municipal utilities.

EMBARGO ON SWEDISH BUTTER.

LONDON, Nov. 12, 9:15 a. m.—Beginning November 15, butter will be added to the list of articles whose exportation is forbidden by the Swedish government, according to a Reuter dispatch from Stockholm. This will make an embargo on the export of food products virtually complete.

I have never been suited for it. I have always cherished my own independence. Too much to be willing to give it up.

My mother has meant too much to me. She would be to have my mother's name mentioned in the newspapers whenever mine is printed. To her I owe everything. What I am, what I have been, is all due to her.

"She is the one who recognized ability in me. In myself I had no confidence. I staid, staid, rehearsed because she told me to."

"I want to go away where there are no people. I cannot exist without people around me. I would die of loneliness—but I want artists around me, painters, men and women who love art as I do."

"In the brush and canvas I find a delightful distraction that rejuvenates. I do not paint by rule and I know nothing of the technique. It is my heart that I put into the work—I feel it and love it."

"Do not think I have taken up painting to take the place of my work on the stage. I have never needed anything, for I have never for a moment missed the stage."

"I have never from the day I made my final bow desired to return. The one thing that remains of that is my public, which belongs to me and I to them."

HAVE COLOR IN YOUR CHEEKS

Be Better Looking; Take Olive Tablets.

If your skin is yellow—complexion pallid—tongue coated—appetite poor—you have a bad taste in your mouth—a lax or no-good feeling—you should take Olive Tablets.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—a substitute for calomel—were prepared by Dr. Edwards after 10 years of study with his patients.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color.

If you want a clear, pink skin, bright eyes, no pimples, a feeling of buoyancy like childhood days, you must get at the cause.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act on the liver and bowels like calomel—yet are no dangerous after effects.

They start the bile and overcome constipation. That's why millions of boxes are sold annually at 10¢ and 25¢ per box. All druggists.

Take one or two nightly and note the pleasing results.

EVERY THREE MINUTES ONE DIES IN THE U. S.

The Anti-Tuberculosis Society illustrates the frightful toll of consumption by extinguishing a light every three minutes, and shows that it is the man or woman, girl or boy, who neglects colds, whose blood is impure, who feels weak and languid, who is the very one to contract tuberculosis—and none are immune.

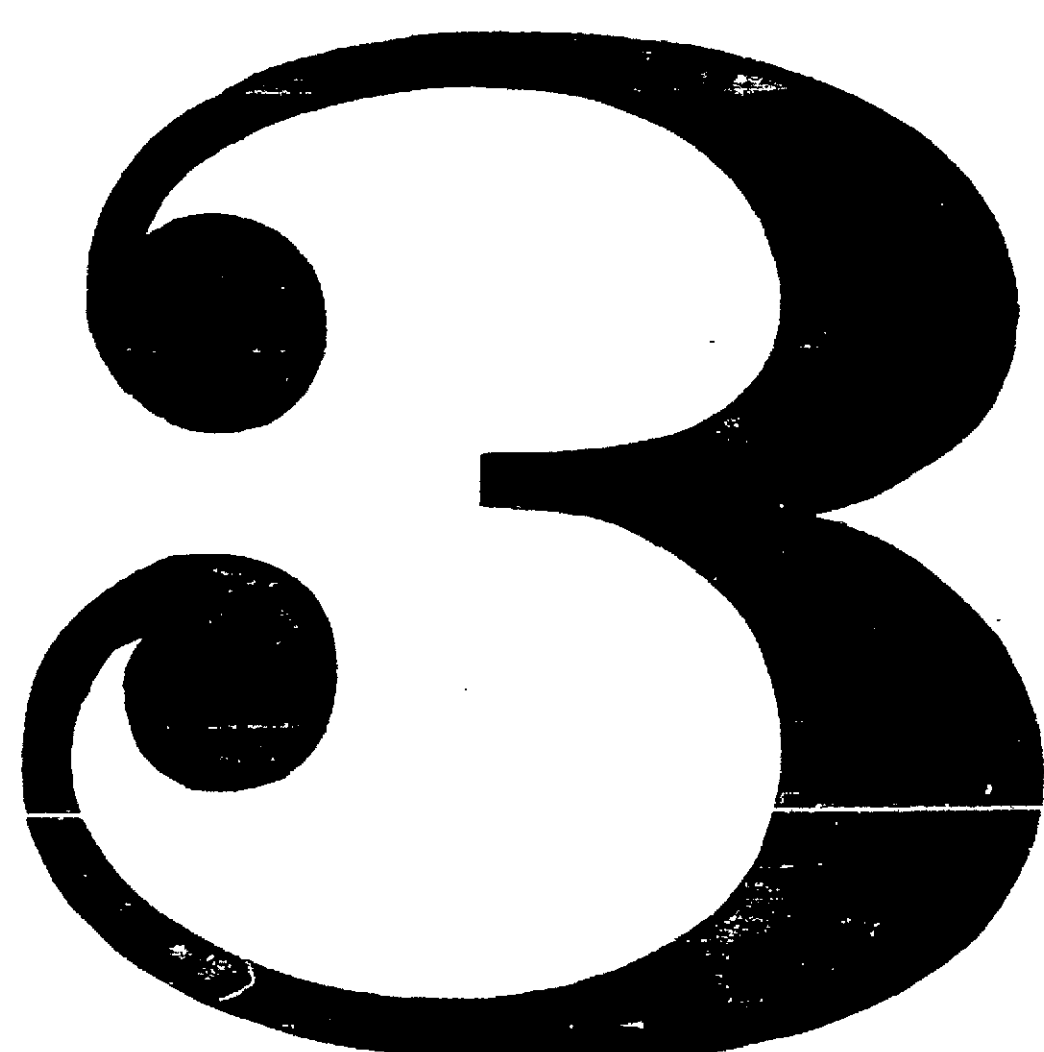

During changing seasons, or after sickness, blood-quality is most important, and if you and your family will take Scott's Emulsion after meals it will charge your blood with health-sustaining richness, quicken circulation, and strengthen both lungs and throat.

Scott's is free from alcohol—easy to take—it cannot harm. Get a bottle to-day. Scott & Bowe, Bloomfield, N.J. 15-23

STEAMSHIP FIRM
TO SWELL STOCK

Preparations Are Rushed for
Competing in Coast
Trade.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 12.—The California Steamship Company, recently organized to compete in the coastwise trade, and purchase the steamship "Clio" of the Western Line, has announced today that its capital stock will be increased from $100,000 to $200,000.

Preparations for the trade are being hastened by the acquisition of a M. G. Gardner, formerly general manager of the Western Line, and a position of general manager of the new company. The president of the California Steamship Company, Mr. J. H. Gardner, is a former partner in the Western Line, and has been in the coastwise trade for many years.

OREGON RAILWAY TO BE RECONSTRUCTED

TACOMA, Wash., Nov. 12.—Expenditure of $1,000,000 by the Union Pacific system and the Oregon Railway and Navigation Co. for the reconstruction of the main line of the O. & N. between Blaine and Corvallis, was announced today by the latter company.

The reconstruction of the line is being undertaken by the O. & N. Co. and the Union Pacific system, and is expected to be completed by the end of the year.

BRITISH TREASURY BILLS
RATE ON LONG DATES

LONDON, Nov. 12.—The Bank of England has announced that the rate of interest on Treasury bills for long dates is 4 1/2 per cent.

TO INCREASE OUTPUT
SUPERVISORS GIVE UP
CONTROL OF SCHOOL

REDDING, Nov. 12.—The Shasta county high school building has been formally transferred by the Board of Supervisors to the trustees of the Shasta Union High School District. The building never was under the control of the county board of education.

Ten years ago when the structure was completed the district attorney at that time advised the supervisors that the building would not be completed, in fact, until a fence or wall was built around it. The fence or wall was never built, and for all these years the building has been under the care of the supervisors.

In the meantime two new high school districts have been carved out of the county—Fall River and Anderson—and the county-at-large has been keeping up the building, paying the insurance and the janitor.

A new law, effective in August last, treated the trustees of the union high school district as a body independent of the county board of education. This board has now come into its own, and can pay its own insurance and janitor's fees.

BOASTS OF "ARIZONA"
GANG; IS FINED $50

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 12.—"When you monkey with me, you monkey with the Arizona bunch," said William Hale to Ed Becker at the Jordan dance several nights ago. Then he hit Becker on the nose, flattening that organ very effectively. One of Hale's friends paid a $50 fine for him, imposed by Police Judge Henderson.

Becker had been watching a fight between two boys, he said, when Hale accused him of interfering in the battle. The blow followed, and Becker was taken to a physician.

After hearing the evidence the judge told Hale he thought him guilty, but offered to let the case go a jury trial if the defendant preferred. Hale thought he did.

"But if a jury finds you guilty, I'll give you the limit," said the judge.

Becker, who had been in the hospital for a few days, was released by the court.

GRAPE SHIPMENTS MADE;
PEARS ARE STARTING

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 12.—Fruit shipments amounting to eighty-eight cars, eighty-six of which were pears, were made today. The total shipments to date this season within four and a half cars of the total shipments in 1914, ending early in December. On the same date last year only thirty cars were shipped from California. The total movement to date is 14,141 cars, against 15,534 cars for the same date last year.

It is estimated by local shippers that there are still between 400 and 500 cars of grapes to be shipped, but whether this amount will be shipped depends upon weather conditions. Grapes and pears are now being shipped, but shipments are now being made, but shipments are now being made, but shipments are now being made.

RIFORD IS CHOSEN LIBRARY ARCHITECT

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 12.—Loring P. Riford of San Francisco was officially chosen architect for the Carnegie library which the city plans to erect with $100,000 of Carnegie money on the southwest corner of Ninth and J streets.

Riford's design for the library was selected from fifty-five sets of drawings entered in the competition. It will now be forwarded to the Carnegie Corporation for approval, after which the city will endeavor to have the building erected in time so construction work on the building will not be delayed.

LEGAL NOTICES

NOTICE OF NON-RESPONSIBILITY. My wife, Mrs. McKenna Hollander, having left me and her board, I will not be responsible for any bills contracted by her on and after this twelfth day of November, 1915.

Holt Sentenced for Scurrilous Letters

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 12.—Edward Holt of Wales has been sentenced to a year in the county jail for having sent scurrilous matter through the mails to C.

White Mortimer, British consul, and for having dropped a lighted torch into a mail box. Holt asked that he be sent back to Wales, but Judge William C. Van Fleet, presiding in the United States district court, told him that after he had served his term "doubtless the immigration authorities will be glad to aid you to leave." Holt became worked up over the European war and was arrested last July.

Something New and Sensible in Overcoats

Step into our store and make the acquaintance of the new Saxon Nock-about Overcoat.

It's an unlined overcoat, but is warmer than a lined one because the woolen fabric from which it is made comes next your body instead of a cold cotton lining.

And it costs less than a lined overcoat.

PROSPERITY HERE, SAYS AD EXPERT

H. K. McCann Sounds Optimistic Prediction for Western Expansion.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 11.—H. K. McCann, who, within five years has established for himself an advertising agency extending its operations to four cities, achieving a new mark in its particular field, is an optimistic visitor and is at the St. Francis Hotel.

Optimism was the keynote of a short interview with McCann this morning in which he talked business and politics in expert fashion and showed a knowledge of conditions in the country which is being realized more and more by the people generally.

"I have come on my yearly trip to my agency here," declared McCann, "and of course I wanted to see the exposition. I have offices in New York, Toronto and Cleveland besides this city, and I stopped off on the way coming from Cleveland over the southern route and visited the San Diego Exposition. I found evidence of prosperity everywhere. I think conditions are getting better every minute. I was surprised at the activity in the Middle West. The orders for munitions are coming in so rapidly that prosperity is being felt in almost every line of endeavor. You have not begun to get it so much in the West. I do not believe the war has benefited the Pacific coast as much as any other part of the country. Still I think you are beginning to notice it more now and in future your business from this source should grow if the war continues."

"I have always liked this portion of the country and I believe that the next two years will see growth and expansion in business which is now little dreamed of."

"At the outbreak of the war we were fearful in New York that a disastrous business decline would come and it was not until we found that we could finance ourselves and that we were not so dependent on London as we thought we were that we struggled to our feet. Since then we have been going steadily ahead and of course the orders for munitions have helped us."

"I believe that the tariff should be taken out of politics. I do not think it should be made a political issue between the parties. I think that the Republicans are getting stronger and I would not be surprised at a Republican victory in 1916. As I came West through Texas I heard much dissatisfaction with the Wilson administration because of affairs in Mexico. Personally I think the President has done well in the conduct of his diplomatic negotiations with the warring countries. I believe, however, that the Republicans will be victorious, as there is a decline in Progressive activity and many of the Progressives are coming back to the Republican party. Wilson, of course, is a minority President, and I do not think it will be possible for the minority to triumph next year."

HOW TO DESTROY CATARRH GERMS AND END CATARRH FOREVER

Just Breathe This Antiseptic Air in Your Own Home and Quickly End Catarrh. Relieves Head Colds and Snuffles in Three Minutes.

Of all the diseases caused by germs Catarrh is one of the most persistent and loathsome. Catarrh can be cured but the only way to kill and drive out of your system the catarrhal germs which have found lodgement there. When the germs go the disagreeable symptoms will stop.

There is nothing better for such cases than breathing in your nose, throat and lungs the pleasant, soothing, healing, germ-destroying air of Hyomel (pronounced High-o-mel), a combination of purest oil of Eucalyptus and other powerful, antiseptic, germ-destroying ingredients. Simply put a few drops of Hyomel in the inhaler that comes with every complete package and breathe it in for a few minutes, four times a day. By breathing Hyomel in this way every particle of air that enters the air passages of the nose, head and throat and goes into the lungs, is charged with a germ-destroying balsam that penetrates every nook and crevice of the mucous membranes lining these air passages, kills the germs, heals the inflamed, swollen membranes, stops the discharge,

PLANS LAID FOR BIG CONVENTIONS

Mass Meeting Held Today in S. F. to Outline Monster Campaign.

Many people from this side of the bay attended the mass meeting called by the San Francisco Convention League today in the Merchants' Exchange where preliminary plans were laid for the fight to be waged by San Francisco in an effort to secure the 1916 Republican and Democratic National Conventions. Hundreds responded to the call, agreeing on a rapid-fire plan of action. Representatives of all prominent civic and commercial bodies were in attendance.

Two hundred thousand dollars will be raised to be placed before the national committee as a guarantee of expenses. It will be as necessary to present our arrangements for convention halls, railroad rates, hotel rates and conveniences, telegraphic facilities and everything else in such shape that there cannot be the slightest question raised on any point that our people can answer by satisfactory guarantees.

The appointing of committees to secure funds will be completed this week. At a meeting to be held within a few days the men who are to make the "pilgrimage" east in behalf of San Francisco for the conventions, will be named.

GIRL PICKS MAN OUT AS SLAYER

Many Cities Seek Possession of Alleged Murderer of W. O. W. Official.

WICHITA, Kan., Nov. 12.—Arthur Houser, brought here from Indianapolis, was identified last night by Miss Grace Slater as being the slayer of William H. Smith, national secretary of the Woodmen of the World, who was murdered in Omaha, Neb., October 18.

The only eye witness to the killing, picked Houser from among thirty-seven prisoners in the county jail. A delegation of seven came from Omaha to see the prisoner. They were members of a party held up and robbed on the night of the Smith murder, and identified Houser as their assailant as positively as did Miss Slater.

POLICE JUDGE SUE BY OREGON SALOON-KEEPER

KLAMATH FALLS, Ore., Nov. 12.—Suit has been filed in the Circuit Court for Klamath county by A. F. Clubine, saloonkeeper of Merrill, twenty-five miles south of this city, against George Offield, police judge, and T. M. Durham, marshal of Merrill, in which plaintiff demands damages in the sum of $5750.

On January 15, 1915, Clubine was arrested, charged with a violation of the ordinance of the city of Merrill regarding the closing of saloons on election day. He was released on habeas corpus proceedings, after remaining in jail twenty-four hours. Clubine alleges that the lock-up was a "cold, damp dungeon" without furniture, heat, light or any conveniences, that it was impossible for him to obtain the comforts of life or to communicate with friends, and that he was imprisoned without authority of law; that as a result he has been held up to ridicule by persons who formerly esteemed him, the result being great physical and mental suffering for which he asks $5000 damages, also $500 for loss of time and depreciation of his business, and $250 for attorney fees.

TEACHERS IN SESSION. SAN DIEGO, Nov. 12.—A hall was the feature of the Southern California Teachers' Association gathering here yesterday. Lectures were held during a portion of the day at the Panama-California exposition. The most important event on the schedule tomorrow is the election of officers.
